Kip Elliott enters his 35th year with the Twins in 2026 and was named to his current title on December 21, 2016. He was previously Executive Vice President, Business Administration and Chief Financial Officer since January 2012, after serving as Chief Financial Officer since January 1999.

Elliott joined the Twins in May 1992 as Accounting Manager and held the position of Controller from 1995-98. He was named Senior Vice President on August 28, 2006. He was employed by the public accounting firm of Coopers and Lybrand from 1989-92.

Elliott, who was named the 2010 "CFO of the Year" by the Minneapolis/St. Paul Business Journal, is responsible for overseeing the Twins' Finance, Procurement, Legal, and Ballpark Operations departments, including management of the organization's annual financial reporting and its financial relationship with Major League Baseball. As part of the executive leadership team, he also plays a key role in the structuring and implementation of the club's strategic plan, as well as the ongoing facility planning for Target Field, the Lee Health Sports Complex and the player-development Academy in the Dominican Republic.

Elliott serves as a trustee on MLB's Non-Uniformed Personnel Pension Plan Committee and the Minor League Baseball Health & Welfare Plan, and is a member of MLB's Insurance Task Force. Elevated to the club's executive leadership team in January 2025, Moore supports growth across brand partnerships, ticket sales and service, premium seating, special events, consumer marketing, brand marketing, and media, ensuring a dynamic and integrated approach to advancing the Twins' business success.

Moore originally joined the Twins in February 2022 as Vice President, Brand Partnerships, before being promoted to Senior Vice President, Commercial Revenue in May 2024. Under his leadership, the Twins have successfully executed several initiatives to materially boost partner value and fan access, including launching the Emmy Award-winning Twins.TV with a scalable Major League Baseball broadcast ad-sales model; modernizing the club's ticketing, commerce and fan experience via the MyTwins Membership & Rewards program; and further elevating the Twins' industry-leading sustainability platform. The Twins were the lone MLB club to receive 2025 Front Office Sports Most Innovative Team honors, while Moore was recognized as a Minneapolis/St. Paul Business Journal 2025 "Forty Under 40" honoree.

Prior to joining the Twins, Moore served as Vice President, Multimedia Rights at Playfly Sports, where he successfully expanded the company's Home Team Sports portfolio across Major League Baseball, the National Basketball Association, and the National Hockey League. DAVE ST. PETER

STRATEGIC ADVISOR

One of the most consequential executives in Twins and recent Minnesota sports history, Dave St. Peter shifted to the role of Strategic Advisor on March 3, 2025 after a 22-year tenure as club president. St. Peter, who originally joined the organization in 1990, was named the fourth president in Minnesota Twins history in November 2002 and assumed the Chief Executive Officer title in December 2016, continues to partner with the Pohlad family, Derek Falvey and Twins executive leadership to provide guidance on a range of key development issues, including the continued long-term evolution of Target Field and the club's Emmy Award-winning broadcast partnership with Major League Baseball media, among others.

St. Peter's monumental tenure as club president saw the Twins organization reestablish itself in the hearts and minds of Minnesotans with an on-field resurgence in the early 2000s; ensure its long-term future in the state with the construction, operation and ongoing improvement of the award-winning Target Field; serve as a primary catalyst for the emergence and evolution of Minneapolis' North Loop area; become a recognized industry leader for community engagement and environmental stewardship; reward fans with innovative, best-in-class experiences; empower its employees to grow and thrive; and reemerge in recent seasons as a perennial Postseason contender.

St. Peter helped foster a model public-private partnership with Hennepin County and the Minnesota Ballpark Authority to drive the approval, design, construction, opening and continued development of Target Field. One of the most unique and spectacular venues in MLB, the Twins' home ballpark welcomed a franchise-record 3.2 million fans in 2010, was honored as the 2011 Sports Facility of the Year by Sports Business Journal, was lauded by ESPN as having the best stadium experience in all of professional sports, and continues to be nationally recognized as a premier sports and entertainment venue entering its 17th year.

St. Peter's leadership was also instrumental in securing the 2022 Discover NHL Winter Classic® for Target Field, a New Year's Day extravaganza described in the Star Tribune as a "postcard for Minnesota"; construction of a new player-development Academy in the Dominican Republic; hosting the 2014 Major League Baseball All-Star Game, which earned finalist honors from Sports Business Journal for "Event of the Year"; expansion of the Lee Health Sports Complex in Fort Myers, FL – named Ballpark Digest's 2015 "Major Ballpark Renovation of the Year"; and in crafting a partnership with Hennepin County for the design and programming of Minnesota's award-winning intermodal transit hub — Target Field Station. In 2020, St. Peter led the Twins' effort to build a new, player development-focused partnership with the St. Paul Saints.

The 2026 season marks St. Peter's 37th with the Twins. He joined the organization as an intern in 1990 and over his first decade with the franchise held a variety of positions including Pro Shop Manager, Communications Manager, Vice President of Corporate Communications and Senior Vice President of Business Affairs. St. Peter has been a passionate advocate behind the efforts to make the Twins a more inclusive organization; the significant growth of the award-winning Minnesota Twins Community Fund and its focus on growing the games of baseball and softball; development of the team's "Magic Moments" customer service initiative and the nationally-lauded "Go Twins, Go Green" environmental stewardship program; the club's new broadcast partnership with MLB Media and the expansion of the Treasure Island Baseball Network; and efforts to celebrate the rich history of the Washington Senators/Twins franchise as underscored by expansive alumni engagement — including the creation of the Twins Hall of Fame.

MINNESOTA™

MINNESOTA TWINS IN THE COMMUNITY

For more than 60 years, the Minnesota Twins organization has proudly worked hand-in-hand with community partners to be a catalyst for positive change. From Target Field to communities across Twins Territory, the Minnesota Twins and the Minnesota Twins Community Fund work together to empower youth, foster belonging, and nurture the planet. We believe that we are more than a baseball team—we are building a better tomorrow.

BUILDING A BETTER TOMORROW

We are committed to creating long-lasting impact in the community, not just during our 81 home games, but 365 days a year. Together with our partners, our players, coaches, alumni and employees continue to evolve our region for the better, investing in the next generation and inspiring more equitable, empathetic and connected communities.

EMPOWERING YOUTH

For decades, young people have been at the forefront of our commitment to our community. We use the game we love and the voice we have to create not just the next generation of great athletes, but the next generation of great human beings. Through our curriculum-based Learning Through Baseball and T.C.'s Strike Out Plan programs, we leverage the power of baseball to engage students, infuse fun into learning, and build excellence. Empowering the full potential of our youth also requires equitable access to opportunities outside the classroom that instill a love of play and enhance overall development and well-being. Through free clinics, Twins Nike RBI leagues, training camps, leadership academies, grants and more, the Twins lead the way with youth baseball and softball programs that teach players the fundamentals of the game as well as essential life skills like teamwork, perseverance, and patience.

FOSTERING BELONGING

The Twins are committed to leveling the playing field and shaping a better tomorrow in which discrimination and inequality have no place. The Club works year-round to build spaces that invite people in, inspire them to share in community, and celebrate them for who they are. Throughout the year, we celebrate the diverse communities across Twins Territory and make Target Field a space where people of all backgrounds are welcome. Our community events – like Hispanic Heritage Night, Pride Day, Native American Heritage Night and many more – inspire unity and amplify our unique and shared traditions. Outside of Target Field, the Minnesota Twins Community Fund works with partners including Deaf Equity, Special Olympics Minnesota, NubAbility, and Courage Kenny Rehabilitation Institute to host adaptive baseball and softball clinics tailored so that young athletes of all abilities can learn the fundamentals of the game in a fun environment that meets their needs.

NURTURING THE PLANET

Since the first blueprints were drawn for Target Field the Minnesota Twins have taken innovative steps toward preserving our environment, and we have a bold vision to set a new standard for sustainability in the entertainment industry. Target Field continues to be MLB's greenest ballpark, and every fan who comes to a game at Target Field is part of our industry-leading efforts to keep waste out of landfills, use compostable materials, and recycle rainwater. We work with community partners like Appetite For Change, sponsoring an urban farm in North Minneapolis to help young people learn about sustainability and grow fresh produce for our neighbors. Through our Healthy Waters Initiative, we are investing $50,000 annually to support environmental restoration projects with Great River Greening.

MINNESOTA TWINS COMMUNITY FUND

Founded as a nonprofit in 1991 to lead the ballclub's philanthropic efforts and proudly celebrating its 35th anniversary in 2026, the Minnesota Twins Community Fund has provided more than $27 million through the years to support and empower youth throughout Twins Territory. We firmly believe that this game is for everyone, and for decades we've been removing barriers and expanding opportunities for all kids across Twins Territory to get in the game. In 2024 the Minnesota Twins Community Fund was named a Project Play Champion by the Aspen Institute, which recognizes organizations across the U.S. that are leading the way to make youth sports more equitable and inclusive, and in 2025 we made history as the first MLB team to field a girls baseball team. From free clinics and Twins Nike RBI leagues to adaptive programming and grant funding, our programs continue to set the standard for accessibility and quality. Because we want every kid to have the support, equipment, and safe places to play the games we love.

ONCE

Shelty was the mastermind behind Joe Mauer putting on the catchers gear for his final game in 2018. Shelty, who was Paul Molitor's bench coach in 2018, made the suggestion in May of that season to coaching assistant Nate Dammann who was close to Mauer. Dammann asked Mauer to consider it. Mauer first said he had to ask his wife, Maddie, for her thoughts then after getting the go-ahead from her, he asked how he was going to remain safe from swings or foul balls. Shelty - along with Molitor - reached out to White Sox manager Rick Renteria, who agreed to allow Mauer to catch one pitch safely. An event that was months in the making concluded when Yoán Moncada, who was the batter, took one pitch from Matt Belisle. Mauer exited the game to a standing ovation.

COACHING CAREER HIGHLIGHTS: Coached under Rocco Baldelli and Paul Molitor in Minnesota, under John Gibbons in Toronto, Joe Maddon in Tampa Bay and Eric Wedge in Cleveland...prior to managerial experience with Pittsburgh (2020-25), coached (or managed) at major league and minor league levels for 23 seasons from 1997-2019...spent 2019 as Twins bench coach under Rocco Baldelli and 2018 as Twins bench coach under Paul Molitor...managed in Molitor's absence (attended HOF induction ceremonies) July 28-29, 2018 at Boston (0-2)...still remains longest tenured hitting coach in Tampa Bay's history, having spent seven seasons as hitting coach under Joe Maddon (2010-16)...replaced Hall of Famer Eddie Murray as Cleveland's hitting coach in 2005...in first full season with Indians in 2006, the club finished second in baseball in runs scored (860)...over his five-year tenure with Cleveland, they ranked fifth in baseball in runs scored, third in OBP and sixth in SLG...served as hitting coach for MLB All-Star team that played in five games against Chinese Taipei national team in Taiwan in November of 2011...manager and coach at multiple levels of Yankees minor league system from 1997-2002...manager of Single-A Staten Island in 2002 and GCL Yankees manager from 2000-01...coach at Double-A Norwich in 1999, coach at Single-A Tampa in 1998 and coach at GCL Yankees in 1997.

DAUGHTER

Shelty's youngest daughter Gianna plays club volleyball back near their home in St. Petersburg. He claims volleyball has become his favorite sport to watch over the last few months. He said that he always made fun of the dads who stood off to the side and now he's that dad at games.

"You don't know how you live until your wife yells at you to quit yelling at someone who's not your own kid."

Alison told him once at a game, "You need to shut up." Shelty replied, "Well she needs to move her feet!"

PLAYING CAREER: Former catcher played two seasons in New York-AL's organization from 1992-93, combining to hit .341 in 46 games, including a .382 batting average for Rookie-Oneonta in 1992...teammates with Hall of Famers Derek Jeter and Mariano Rivera at Greensboro in 1992... underwent elbow surgery after 1993 season, ending playing career.

Years later in January of 2008, when LaTroy was with the Yankees, he was in New York taking a physical. He heard Michael was at Barney's (dept. store). MISCELLANEOUS BASEBALL TERMINOLOGY

WHIP: Walks and hits per innings pitched = add a pitchers walk total with his hit total and divide by the amount of innings pitched.

QUALITY STARTS: A starting pitcher logs at least 6.0 innings and allows three-or-fewer earned runs in an outing.

TOTAL BASES: Number of bases a hitter gains via hits only...single = 1, double = 2, triple = 3, home run = 4.

AT-BAT vs. PLATE APPEARANCE: Plate appearance refers to any time a batter completes a turn batting. (NOTE: A plate appearance cannot be logged if a preceding runner was out on the base paths for a third out or the game ends with a runner scoring from third on a wild pitch or balk). At-bat refers to any turn batting that does not result in a walk, hit by pitch, sac-fly or sac-hit (bunt).

OPS: A player's on-base percentage plus his slugging percentage. MLB average in 2025 was .719. Major League Baseball's leader was New York Yankees outfielder Aaron Judge (1.144).

OPS+: Takes a player's on-base plus slugging percentage and normalizes the number across the entire league. It accounts for external factors like ballparks. It then adjusts so a score of 100 is league average, and 150 is 50 percent better than the league average.

wOBA (Weighted On-Base Average): A version of on-base percentage that accounts for how a player reached base -- instead of just considering whether a player reached base. The value for each method of reaching base is determined by how much that event is worth in relation to projected runs scored (example: a double is worth more than a single).

wRC+ (Weighted Runs Created Plus): Takes the statistic Runs Created and adjusts that number to account for important external factors -- like ballpark or playing era. It's adjusted, so a wRC+ of 100 is league average and 150 would be 50 percent above league average.

WAR (Wins Above Replacement): Measures a player's value in all facets of the game by deciphering how many more wins he's worth than a replacement-level player at his same position (e.g., a Minor League replacement or a readily available fill-in free agent). For example, if a shortstop and a first baseman offer the same overall production (on offense, defense and the basepaths), the shortstop will have a better WAR because his position sees a lower level of production from replacement-level players.

CLOSE AND LATE: A situation in which the game is in the seventh inning-or-later and the team batting is either leading by one run, tied, or has the potential tying run on base, at-bat, or on deck.

TIMES ON BASE: Includes the total number of times a hitter reaches base as result of a hit, walk, or hit by pitch...does not include times a hitter reaches via error or fielder's choice.

CATCHER'S ERA: The earned run average of a team's pitchers with a particular catcher behind the plate. To compute, multiply nine by the earned runs allowed by the pitchers for that specific catcher, then divide that figure by his innings caught.

HOLD: Credited to a relief pitcher who enters a game in a save situation, records at least one out and leaves the game never having surrendered the lead. NOTE: A pitcher cannot finish a game and earn a hold.

SAVE RULE

Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; and
(2) He is not the winning pitcher; and
(3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
- (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; or
- (b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck; or
- (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

No more than one save may be credited in each game.

It is considered a 'blown save' when a pitcher who has entered a game in a save situation departs with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead. If the save situation still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity. And, if he has not given up the lead when he leaves the game, even though the save situation may no longer exist, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

ABEL ANSWERS

What's your favorite thing about Minnesota and or the Twin Cities? "I just love how beautiful it is outside. I mean, just it's kind of broad, but like it's just a beautiful state, a lot of lakes, a lot of good scenery. "

What was your first welcome to the show moment? "I gave up back-to-back-to-back home runs against the Mets. It was Lindor, Soto, and Nimmo. That was a don't throw fastballs in fastball counts moment."

Who is your closest friend in baseball? Griff McGarry. I got really close with him when he got drafted to the Phillies in '21. I was in 2020 and we've maintained a really good friendship for the last few years and we were roommates at a couple different stops in the minor leagues.

Who did you model your game after when you were growing up? "Once I saw Jacob deGrom pitch, I really like the way he moved on the mound. Always loved how fluid he was. And I like to model my competitiveness after Max Scherzer. I don't think I'm as, you know, I don't think you can see it as much on my face, but I think in my mind I kind of stew like that."

ALL THE BELLS AND WHISTLES

Who did you model your game after when you were growing up? "It's actually a funny story. I got a ton of different players that I used to try to emulate their swings, like Ichiro, Joe Mauer is one of them, Joey Votto, mainly lefties, but I was trying to be Nelson Cruz. So I guess that's another Twins, great player. But yeah, I'd bounce back and forth with who I was trying to emulate."

Highlight of the offseason? "Just hanging out with my family. Got 3 kiddos. They're 4, 2 1/2, and 10 months right now. So you'll see them at the stadium this year, and hopefully they can cheer us on."

Who was your closest friend in baseball? "Kyle Crick. We were roommates in 2018 with the Pirates, and we're neighbors now. We got kiddos that are grown up together, seen him on and off the field, and he's definitely one of my best friends."

What is the most used app in your phone? "I got a swing video app that I'm just constantly like critiquing myself. Any swings that I take in the offseason or in season it kind of rates your swing between 0 and 100. So right now I'm in like the high 80s. I'm trying to crack into the 90s before the season."

What was your first welcome to the Show Moment? "So my debut, it was 2016, it was against the Cubs. I was facing the reigning Cy Young winner, Jake Arrieta. And I took his first pitch slider and hit into right field for a line drive single. And the next night I had my first homer, hit a grand slam. Home games in Pittsburgh, the Cubs were our rivals and the place was going crazy. So definitely something I won't forget."

What is your favorite thing about Minnesota and or the Twin Cities? "I haven't really been here a ton, but it just seems like in the hotel and just walking around downtown meeting people, seems like everyone's super friendly. I'm from Texas and we're all about like Southern hospitality, but everyone's striking up conversations up here in the elevators, like nothing's awkward. So that's definitely making me feel like home."

JOSHIN' AROUND

What's your least favorite movie? "I'll tell you what, I just watched Weapons. The guy sitting next to me on the plane was watching. It's like a horror flick. I didn't get any audio, but I never want to watch that movie again. It was like very, very scary. It was terrifying."
What's your go-to cheat meal? "I'm from the South, so I like gumbo, I like chicken and dumplings, I like red beans and rice. I guess it's not exactly a cheat meal, but it's definitely a filling and probably highly caloric."
What's the most embarrassing moment from your baseball career? "There was a game in Philly. I was playing first base. And there's a runner at first. Pitch comes in and the hitter throws his bat into the stands. And I'm like watching, making sure no one gets hit. Catcher did not see the bat go in the stands. Catcher sees the guy at first base is watching the bat go into the stands as well and fires a back pick. And I wasn't paying attention, so the ball like trickles down to the outfield and the guy scores from first base. And walking into the dugout after that inning was kind of tough, but I ended up hitting a two-run homer the next inning, so I kind of made-up for it."
What game show do you think you could win and why? "I've watched a lot of the Family Feud and I think I got some smart people in my family, so maybe they could carry all the heavy lifting. But aside from that, I'm definitely not winning Jeopardy or anything."

He would even tell the umpire before the game, that he should expect to get hit by at least five balls a game. TAKES FROM TAJ

Highlight of the off season? "I went to Red Rocks in Colorado to see a Freddie Gibbs concert, Earl Sweatshirt, Denzel Curry. And it was another group that was there. I forget the name, but it was hard though. It was like 30 degrees. It was on Halloween"

Who is your closest friend in baseball? "Richie Palacios and Ray Allen. On the Tampa Bay Rays."

Who did you model your game after when you were growing up? "I was a big Prince Fielder fan, but I wasn't a lefty, so I couldn't. I couldn't. Maybe I would try, but I don't think it worked out. I'm doing a different position now, so."

What is the most used app in your phone? "YouTube."

What's your favorite thing about Minnesota and or the Twin Cities? "I haven't been yet, but I think the lakes. I think it'd be cool on an off-day during the summer or even going fishing. I already talked to Brooks Lee about hitting up some fishing spots with him."

What is your favorite quote from a baseball movie? "I don't think I could say it, but bad news bears like at the end of it. Okay. the kid, he was, they had the non-alcoholic beer. I see you next year."

What was your first welcome to the show moment? "I was pitching in New York against the Mets and I'm facing Pete Alonso. And I'd already had three games before that in the big leagues, but I think I was throwing him breaking balls and I got like to a two strike count somehow. And I threw him like 97 at the top of the zone and he hit it dead center. And it might like, in AAA, they tell you like, when you get to a higher level and meet hitters that are more like advanced, they're gonna have a pitch that they're sitting on. And he did not miss it."

HOW TO FIGURE...

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of safe hits by the total number of at-bats (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitch, or times awarded first on obstruction or interference).

EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the total number of earned runs by nine, then divide the result by the number of innings pitched.

FIELDING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors (total chances).

CONSECUTIVE HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference, or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

FESTA FACTS

Highlight of the offseason? "Probably my brother's wedding. I went to a bunch of weddings, so I would go with that."

Who did you model your game after when you were growing up? "Probably Jacob deGrom. I grew up in the New Jersey, New York area, so I went to a lot of Mets games and watched them pitch. Obviously, we're both tall and skinny, so I would say him."

Who is your closest friend in baseball? "Non-Twin. I would say Louis Varland, since he's not a twin anymore."

What's your favorite thing about Minnesota and or the Twin Cities? "I really like the suburbs here. I'm not much of a city person. I grew up in the suburbs, so I think the suburbs are really nice. The lakes and stuff are cool."

What's your go-to cheat meal? "Probably Five Guys or something. Some like greasy burger."

What is the most used app in my phone? "I'd say Twitter. I feel like I'm always on Twitter more often than Instagram or something like that."

PROFESSIONAL: Selected by Twins in 13th round of 2021 First-Year Player Draft out of Seton Hall University; signed by scout John Wilson.

OHTANI BEFORE IT WAS COOL

Fundy was recruited by Dallas Baptist as a first baseman and pitcher. In 59 games in 2018, he slashed .304/.429/.584 with 12 HR. During the draft process, some teams wanted him to hit and some wanted him to pitch. Some said, they may be willing to do both and eventually play into one or the other. He figured with his recent success at the plate, he would be drafted as a first baseman. Then when the Twins drafted him, his name was called, followed by 'left-handed pitcher' cementing his future. In fact, when asked by media, which pitcher would he feel most comfortable hitting in a game, former manager Rocco Baldelli said, "it would easily be Fundy."

2022: Began season in Wind Surge bullpen but transitioned to starter role from beginning of June to end of season...named Double-A All-Star with Wichita.

2021: Named Twins minor league Pitcher of the Week on September 5...appeared in the Arizona Fall League for the Scottsdale Scorpions, went 3-2, 6.11 ERA (17.2 IP, 12 ER) with six walks and 22 strikeouts in six games (all starts).

2020: Did not pitch professionally due to cancelled minor league season (COVID-19 pandemic).

2019: Split season between Low-A Cedar Rapids and High-A Fort Myers, combining to go 1-3, 4.39 ERA (53.1 IP, 26 ER) with 26 walks and 57 strikeouts in 13 games (10 starts).

2018: Spent first professional season with Rookie-Elizabethton, appearing in 10 games (9 starts)...made professional debut on June 24 at Bristol, pitching 3.0 scoreless innings with one hit allowed, one walk and three strikeouts.

YES JEFF

What is your favorite baseball memory growing up?: "I played on a really good young travel team. I had the same group of teammates from when I was eight, nine, 10, 11 and 12. So we developed some lifelong friendships in that group. We won a lot of games, a lot of tournaments, when we won the nationals when we were 10. So, I think just the accumulation of all those memories were probably some of the best."

Most influential person in your life pertaining to baseball?: "Probably would be my first baseball coach, coach Jeff. He was the guy who kinda helped me fall in love with the game. I still stay in touch with him, he was just a really influential person just to grow my love for baseball and just learn how to grow up in the game and just a lot of life lessons as well."

Favorite Twins players growing up?: "For me, growing up in North Carolina, we didn't really get a lot of Twins games, if at all. But when I did, it was always the Joe Mauer show. Just watching him as a catcher and seeing him play was always very impactful. An impactful player in my growth."

If you retired from baseball tomorrow, what would you do as a job or hobby?: "If baseball was never a thing, I probably would've gone into some form of engineering. That was kind of a passion of mine. Numbers and stuff were good for me, it was always easier than words. But, if I had to retire tomorrow, I would probably try and get some sort of job in a front office or some alley down that way."

What was your first job?: "In high school, I worked at a drug store, I worked at a Rite Aid. That was my first real job, I probably had some odd end jobs growing up but working at Rite Aid, working a cashier job there was probably my first time."

CATCH UP WITH KLINE

Who did you model your game after when you were growing up? "I was actually a catcher growing up, so it was Joe Mauer."
Highlight your off season? "I got married in the end of November."
My favorite thing about Minnesota or the Twin Cities area? "I have a cabin. My family has a cabin up north in Aiken, Minnesota. So I just, I love to go up there and experience the outdoors."
What's your favorite quote from a baseball movie? "I think it's Major League. Give them the heater, Ricky."
What is my go-to cheat meal? "I'd have to say probably Raising Cane's."
The most embarrassing moment from my baseball career? "I think when I was in Low-A, I lost my glove somehow in the dugout and I had to go out to pitch that inning and it took me forever to find a glove. And I think I grabbed somebody else's and I never ended up finding mine."
What's a game show you think you could win and why? "I'm not very smart, so I'm not going to do like the quiz ones or anything. I'll say American Ninja Warrior."

Halfway through the season, he re-named it IR Bug This Year after losing several players and narrowly missing a last place finish.

THE DOWN-LO ON PABLO

Highlight of the offseason? Spending a lot of time with my family, seeing my nephew turn 5 years old, And then I went on a trip to Hungary, Sweden, and Iceland."

What is the most used app in your phone? "Definitely Spotify, because I'm always the DJ at the place where I train in the off-season. And it's not easy being the everyday DJ."

What was your first welcome to the show moment? "Martin Prado, who was a veteran and captain of the Miami Marlins at the time, he woke me up early one morning with a couple texts telling me to get down to the mall, and then he bought me three very nice suits that I still have to this day."

Who is your closest friend in baseball? "Jesus Luzardo, Venezuelan lefty pitcher for the Philadelphia Phillies."

Who did you model your game after when you were growing up? "It's a good mix of Johan Santana, the way he pitched, his approach, his demeanor, his mentality, combined with Felix Hernandez, who we are both right-handed pitchers, so it was easier to model my pitching after, but it's a good mix of both."

What's your favorite thing about Minnesota and or the Twin Cities? "I like that there's a lot of green everywhere. There's a lot of green. Green's my favorite color. I love nature. There's a lot of water. I grew up going to the beach a lot, and obviously we have lakes, but still the water, it's peaceful, it's quiet. I really love it."

What is your favorite quote from my baseball movie? "Probably cliche, but 'How can you not be romantic about baseball' from Moneyball."

What is your go-to cheat meal? "I like frozen yogurt. And I like Shake Shack burgers."

What game show do you think you could be on? "Definitely not Initials on KFAN. I didn't win when I played in January."

MOVIN' ALL OVER

Austin embraces the super utility role and claims to be comfortable all over the diamond. Signed with Vanderbilt University as a middle infielder out of high school but played all over the place during his time in college – mostly in leftfield. Didn't play nearly as much middle infield even though he was "drafted as a shortstop" by Toronto.

AS LUCK MAYE HAVE IT

Bailey grew up in Huntersville, NC and lived 10 minutes away from New England Patriots quarterback Drake Maye and his family. Bailey's younger brother, Drew, was always on the same teams as Drake's oldest brother, Luke. At sporting events, Bailey would always be tasked with watching over the younger Maye kids, including Drake. Bailey remains close with the Maye family and still plays in fantasy football leagues with Drake's three older brothers, and calls the Maye family "one of the nicest I've ever been around." Bailey and Drake haven't seen each other much over recent years but still exchange congratulatory texts. Maye gave Bailey a shoutout in his Super Bowl media day news conference in early February and was asked to name his Mount Rushmore for hometown athletes. Maye first chose his oldest brother, Luke, and then picked Ober.

BITS ON BAILEY

What is your favorite thing about Minnesota and or the Twin Cities? "I really enjoy the summertime, especially just traveling around, going to all the different parks with my family and kids. The weather is usually perfect out, and it's just a really good time to be outside."

What was your first welcome to the show moment? "The first pitch I ever threw was a fastball to Tim Anderson versus the White Sox, and he hit it all the way to the wall. I thought it was going to be a home run, but luckily Byron, I believe, was in center field and caught it right against the wall."

Highlight of the offseason? "My offseason highlight was probably just spending like a little family vacation down in Sarasota right on the beach. It was a really fun time."

What is the most used app in your phone? "I would probably say outside of the music app, I would probably say Instagram."

Who is your closest friend in baseball? "I'll probably say I have two. James MacArthur, who's on the Royals, and then my old college roommate, Taylor Clark, who just signed back with the Arizona Diamondbacks."

Who do you model your game after when you were growing up? "I had a lot of guys that I really enjoyed watching from Roy Halladay to Pedro Martinez, Randy Johnson. So a lot of those guys I just enjoyed watching growing up and just obviously they were dominant and just really enjoyed how they went about pitching."

What is the most embarrassing moment from your baseball career? "I don't know if I've had too many embarrassing moments when I'm out in the field, but I did make an error with a ground ball hit right at me, so I'm a little embarrassed about that one."

What game show do you think you could win and why? "I don't think I'm going to win any game show, but if I were to list one, it'd be like Wheel of Fortune."

THIS ORZE THAT

Who do you model your game after when you're growing up? "I went through a little phase where I tried to model my game after Dontrelle Willis when I was a little kid, but that was kind of short-lived, so that didn't last too long. Honestly, outside of that, I wouldn't really say I've modeled my game after anyone. Just tried to learn my own personal strengths and amplify them as much as I can."
Highlight of the offseason? "Spending time with the group that I've been training with down in Fort Lauderdale: Nestor Moreno, Aroldis Chapman, Francisco Alvarez, some of those guys, and just talking the game with them and getting to see how they go about their work and just learning as much as I can from them."
What is the most used app in your phone? "Probably YouTube"
My closest friend in baseball? "I would probably go with Keagan Gillies, who is currently in AAA with the Orioles. Spent a lot of time training with him in the offseason, so I got really close with him and his family. He's up and coming, so watch out for him."
What was your first welcome to the show moment? "The one that just sticks out for me is debuting in Pittsburgh with the Mets. Right before I threw my warm-up pitches, Francisco Lindor kind of just took a second with me and just told me to take a couple seconds to just look around the stadium and take it all in real quick. And then, as soon as I turn around, just like, 'Hey, it's go time.' So take a second for yourself. It's going to be a moment you remember forever. And then, as soon as you turn around to start throwing your warm-up pitches, it's go time. So that was a cool moment that I'll always remember."
What is your favorite thing about Minnesota or the Twin Cities? "I haven't got to spend too much time here yet, but the coolest thing for me is probably having my little cousin in the area. I'm not too familiar with the area, so she showed me around a little bit. She's a softball player at St. Thomas University, so having some family close by is probably my favorite thing so far."

SPIDER-MAN MEME

In 2025, James was often mistaken for then-teammate Ryan Fitzgerald. In fact, on September 8, 2025 in Anaheim, Outman homered and a Twins beat reporter accidentally interviewed Fitzgerald postgame instead; Fitz politely answered the questions to the best of his ability (about a homer he didn't hit in a game he didn't play in). In that reporter's defense, Fitzgerald and Outman's lockers were next to each other in Anaheim and Fitzgerald was wearing street clothes at the time. The next night, Fitzgerald both pitched and homered, so the Twins.TV crew decided to interview Outman about it instead, for fun. James had no idea what was going on, did his best and was a good sport, while Fitzgerald was in on the joke and was laughing/filming the whole thing from his locker next door.

2019...continued to display his clutch gene with his first career walk-off hit and RBI, a walk-off RBI double on July 25 against the Blue Jays...earned his second Rookie of the Month award for August, after slashing .277/.408/.482 with five home runs, 15 RBI, two doubles, 16 walks, 17 runs, two stolen bases in 26 games during August...second Dodger to win Rookie of the Month twice in the same season, joining Cody Bellinger (May and June 2017)...named to the Baseball America Major League All-Rookie Team and Baseball Digest/eBay MLB Rookie All-Star Team... performed much better in the second half of the season, hitting .264 (57-for-216) opposed to a .236 (63-for-267) average in the first half...produced a .333/.391/.667 slashline with the bases loaded and a .260/.355/.425 slashline with runners in scoring position...performed well in the field, holding a .993 fielding percentage in center field, making two errors in 299 total chances with three assists over 1103.2 innings...was even-keeled at home and on the road, slashing .249/.356/.404 in 76 games at home compared to .248/.350/.465 in 75 games on the road.

2022: Made stops at Double-A Tulsa (68 G), Triple-A Oklahoma City (57 G) and the Los Angeles Dodgers (4 G)...garnered a minor league batting average of .294 (139-for-473) and a Major League average of .462 (6-for-13)...set career-highs in games (125), at bats (473), runs (101), hits (139), total bases (277), doubles (31), home runs (31), RBI (106), and walks (70)...he hit for the cycle twice in the span of four days...in the majors, he went 6-for-13 in four games with two doubles, one home run, 11 total bases and three RBI...made his major league debut on July 31 at Colorado, going 3-for-4 with a single, double, and homer...became the eighth Dodger and fourth Los Angeles Dodger to homer in his first major at-bat: Clise Dudley (1929), Gordon Slade (1930), Ernie Koy (1938), Dan Bankhead (1947), Jose Offerman (1990), Garey Ingram (1994), Keibert Ruiz (2020)...was the PCL Player of the Week for August 22-28...batted 12-for-21 with 10 extra-base hits, including hitting for the cycle August 26...split his time in the outfield in the minors, getting most of his starts (55 G) in right field with a fielding percentage of .983... committing only two errors...hit for the cycle twice that season with OKC, both in the span of four days, August 26 and 30...tied for fifth in the Pacific Coast League in triples with six

INS AND OUTS

Who is your closest friend in baseball, non-Twin? "I would say my closest friend in baseball is Ryan Ward. We came up through the minor leagues together, and we've been buddies for a long time."

Who did you model your game after when you were growing up? "I would say early years, Eric Byrnes. He just played super hard, and I always wanted to play like that."

Highlight of the offseason? "Being able to spend time with my family and my daughter, watching her grow up, watching her learn new skills and stuff. You don't get a ton of time with them during the season just because you're at the field all day, so I was really blessed to be able to spend a lot more time with her."

What is your favorite thing about Minnesota and/ or the Twin Cities? "I would say the greenery around here. It's, you know, growing up in California and... living in Arizona now you don't get too much like just like bright green trees littered all over the ground so I would say I would say the greenery is one of the most pleasant things for me to look at."

What's your favorite quote from a baseball movie? "Heroes get remembered, but legends never die."

What did I name my first car? "I named it My Jeep."

2021: Split his time between Single-A Great Lakes and Double-A Tulsa, playing in 104 combined games for a .266 average (110-for-414)...set career-highs in doubles (21), triples (9), stolen bases (23), walks (63), runs (90), hits (110), and total bases (203)...with Single-A Great Lakes, the California native slashed .250/.385/.472 with 117 total bases and 21 stolen bases...was identical against righties and lefties, batting .250...with Double-A Tulsa, the righty slugged nine doubles, batted in 24 runs, and smashed nine longballs...hit .253 (19-for-75) in the month of September...went 3-for-5 with three runs scored on August 4 with Tulsa, clubbing a double, two home runs, two RBI, and 10 total bases...recognized as an AA Central Offensive Player of the Week in August with Tulsa..also earned honors as a Rising Star in the Arizona Fall League with the Glendale Desert Dogs.

2020: Did not play professional with minor league season cancelled due to COVID-19.

2019: Promoted to Single-A Great Lakes for the entire season, playing five different positions throughout the year: center field (93 G), right field (10 G), left field (10 G), first base (1 G), and shortstop (1 G) over 119 games...registered a .997 fielding percentage...tied for second in the Single-A Midwest League with 19 home runs in 2019.

2018: Played in 55 games with Rookie-level Ogden...awarded Pioneer League Player of the Week on August 19.

ALL ABOUT AL

Favorite thing about Minnesota or the Twin Cities? "Well, I moved here for the offseason, and I love everything about it. So I'd probably say the Mann Theater in downtown Edina. I've gone there a few times, and I think it's an awesome little old-timey movie theater."
Favorite quote from a baseball movie? "I'm hesitant to say this one because of the, uh, the context of the movie, but, uh, from, from Benchwarmers, um, uh, put a, put a, you better put a fielder up in those mountains in case, ka-bang! Uh, yeah, I love, loved watching that movie growing up."
My go-to cheat meal? "Probably just pizza. It's not good for you, but hey, all the ingredients alone aren't horrible. So them together can't be that bad."
Who is your closest friend in baseball? "That'd definitely have to be Josh Kasevich. He's with the Blue Jays organization."
Highlight of my offseason? "Josh Kasovich getting married. I was able to be in his wedding and in his wedding party, and it was a great time."
Who did I model my game after when I was growing up? "Growing up in Wisconsin, my favorite player was Prince Fielder, so probably his swing was, and me being a lefty hitter as well."
What game show do you think you could win? "I don't know if I could win it, but I always loved watching Deal or No Deal growing up. Just like picking the suitcases and then negotiating. I liked watching that one."
My first welcome to the show moment? "Probably facing Charlie Morton, in my first series. We played the Orioles to open up last year on opening weekend for the Blue Jays. And just watching him in the playoffs all those years and obviously knowing the name, that big curveball he's got."

WHAT'S UP WITH WALLY

What was your first welcome to the show moment? "I don't know if I necessarily have like a singular moment that it was it, but just showing up to the clubhouse the first day and kind of seeing Byron Buxton and Carlos Correa and other guys in there just was pretty cool for me. So just, I guess debut is kind of cliche, but I'd say that for me."

What's your favorite thing about being or about Minnesota and or the Twin Cities? "I mean, I'm from here, so I got tons of things. Just love golfing around here, the lakes. But just that my family lives around here, that's got to be it for me. And just playing where I grew up is really special for me."

What is your least favorite movie? "It's got to be some rom-com or drama or something. I can't name a specific one, but something to that nature."

Who did you model your game after when you were growing up? "Being from Minnesota, I feel like I love watching Justin Morneau and Joe Mauer and just kind of love to the lefty hitters, those guys were. So definitely those two guys for me."

Highlight of the offseason? "For me has been we have a five month old girl. So just being able to see her every day and take care of her, me and my wife have enjoyed every second of that."

Who is your closest friend in baseball? "My closest friend in baseball is a guy who I played at Southern Miss with, Nick Sandlin, who's been with Cleveland and Toronto mostly recently, a pitcher for them."

What's the most embarrassing moment from your baseball career? "There's way too many to count. I mean, just there's been times just like either getting picked off or falling, running the bases, just numerous times. It's never fun."

What game show do you think you could win and why? "I don't know. I actually couldn't win it, but I've been big into Jeopardy lately. And if they gave me some flashcards to study, just random categories, I think I could do okay."

What did you name your first car? "First car, silver, 2004 F-150. Her name was Betsy. She was pretty chill."

What is the most used app on my phone? "If Messenger counts, it's definitely that, just chatting the broskis all day."

What is my go-to cheat meal? "I'm not eating chicken and rice every day all day, so not necessarily it's a cheat meal, but if I got something that like is just a go-to when something that sounds good, I'm doing pizza and buffalo wings."

EARNED RUNS RULE

The determination of earned-runs is as follows:

An earned-run is a run for which the pitcher is held accountable. In determining earned-runs, the inning should be reconstructed without the errors and passed balls, and the benefit of the doubt should always be given to the pitcher in determining which bases would have been reached with errorless play.

Until 1969, a reliever could not be charged with an earned-run if he entered the game after the side could have been retired but for an error, no matter how many runs he subsequently gave up in that inning. Now, runs scored by batters who reach base off the reliever are charged as earned on that pitcher's record. They are not, however, charged as earned against the team as a whole. Therefore, a discrepancy may occur between the total earned-runs charged against a team and the sum total of the earned-runs charged against the individual pitchers of that team.

STARTS SINCE 2024

1. Bailey Ober	58
2. Joe Ryan	53
3. Simeon Woods Richardson	50
4. Pablo López	46
5. Chris Paddack	38

REMEMBER THE NAME

Simeon was raised by his mother, Wendy Woods, his biological father, Arthur Woods, and his non-biological father, Joel Richardson. In order to enroll in the high school he wanted to attend when he was younger, he needed to use the Richardson part of his name so he began to go by Simeon Woods-Richardson, but then eventually dropped the hyphen.

At the time of his debut in 2022, Sim's 22 character name was the longest in MLB history, only to be bested by Christian Encarnacion-Strand (27 characters) when he debuted for Cincinnati in 2023.

SWR joked about the look of his jersey in 2022, saying "I already know it's going to go from love handle to love handle."

SIMEON SAYS

What was your first welcome to the show moment? "When I had to face Miguel Cabrera in my first game I've ever pitched. And I was like, that's Miguel Cabrera."
What's your favorite thing about Minnesota or the Twin Cities? "Food's really good. You pretty much get anything you want. If you're a water person, you can go on the lakes. Even if you want to go try new things, it's always, I mean, I'd say my part is going on the lakes, I would say, and the food."
What's your favorite quote from a baseball movie? "Oh, God. I mean, you can do the basic, 'you're killing me, Smalls.'"
What is your least favorite movie? "Probably like any of the Saw movies."
What's your biggest fear? "Overthinking sometimes. You can overthink easily and try not to."
Who is your closest friend in baseball? "Probably say Mark Vientos, third baseman for the New York Mets. We grew up, being roommates throughout the minor leagues."
Who did you model your game after? "I was a two-way player, so I'd probably say I had a couple of guys. Derek Jeter was one of them. The late end of like Roy Oswalt who's over there. Satchel Paige was another one."
Highlight of the off season? "Buying my new house. I bought a new house, so setting that up, how I wanted it so I could just enjoy the offseason being in my own house."
What was the most used app on your phone? "I'd probably say like Facebook, honestly. Facebook, Instagram."
Go to cheat meal? "A loaf of bread, my mom's chicken salad, and we're going to have some brownies in there probably. Maybe some cookies. That's like my cheat meal."
What game show do you think you could win? "There's a couple out right now. There's like The Floor. I like game shows. So like any American Ninja Warrior, I would want to do any trivia one. Deal or No Deal is a classic. Family Feud, I would do."

LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION

SWR has a passion for writing and producing films. In 2024, he co-produced a film called "Sheepdog," a drama depicting PTSD war veterans and a day in the life of how society treats Army veterans. The film is about Steven Grayhm (director/producer/writer) and follows the story of a combat veteran who is ordered into 60-day treatment and into the care of a VA trauma therapist in-training. The film premiered at the Boston Film Festival in September of 2024 and was released in the U.S. in December of 2025.

Grayhm reached out to Sim in a group text about the idea that was 14 years in the making. The inception of Sheepdog came when Grayhm was stranded on the side of the road and a tow truck driver that picked him up described his story about challenges in his life after multiple deployments overseas and his disconnect from family and other day-to-day events.

SWR always been interested in movies and how they're created. He had a buddy that started videography in high school and would use Sim and his friends as guinea pigs.

He is continuing to learn the industry and is the executive producer on another film set to be released in the near future.

DID YOU Know?

...the longest home run ever hit by a Twin was estimated at 520 feet. Harmon Killebrew crushed the three-run blast off California righty Lew Burdette, which landed in the sixth row of the upper deck at Metropolitan Stadium on June 3, 1967. The ball cracked the seat, and was later painted orange to commemorate the event. The seat is now located in the Mall of America — the former site of "Met" Stadium — bolted to a wall in the amusement park, marking the height and position where the ball would have landed in the upper deck.

WASHINGTON AND MINNESOTA FRANCHISE

The Minnesota Twins trace their roots as a major league franchise to the 1901 Washington Senators, but they go back even farther as a minor league team. The Western League began in 1894 with aspirations of becoming a major league, a status it achieved seven years later. Most of the Midwestern cities were left behind in the transition. For example, a St. Paul team owned by Charles Comiskey moved to Chicago, where it still exists as the White Sox. Several cities, including Minneapolis, had their teams disband and be replaced by ones in larger, eastern cities. However, the Kansas City team, owned and managed by Jimmy Manning, went to Washington and retained its minor-league connection. Manning was the first manager of the Senators (officially the Nationals for many years but more often referred to by fans and others as the Senators) and brought with him most of his players from Kansas City.

The major-league Senators established their destiny early, finishing no higher than sixth in an eight-team league in each of its first 11 seasons, four times finishing in the cellar. As early as 1904 came the quip, "Washington: First in War, First in Peace, Last in the American League."

Washington wallowed despite the addition in 1907 of Walter Johnson, considered by many to be the best pitcher in the history of baseball. Johnson struck out more than 3,500 batters in his career. Several pitchers later surpassed his strikeout record, but Johnson achieved his total mainly during the deadball era, a period that preceded the big swingers.

In 1912 Johnson was credited with 33 pitching victories and helped the Senators finish second, the first time the team placed higher than sixth. Leading the team was Clark Griffith, in his first year as Washington manager. Griffith had been an outstanding pitcher in the 1890s and was a leader getting the American League established, helping to convince more than 100 National League players to join the new league.

Griffith also began acquiring an ownership interest in the Senators, selling cattle from his Montana ranch and eventually mortgaging the ranch to raise the funds needed to purchase a controlling interest. He became the team's president in 1920.

Around this time Griffith took custody of two children of his wife's brother, James Robertson, who lived in Montreal and had health and money problems. Calvin and Thelma Robertson moved to Washington and, although never formally adopted, took the Griffith name. Clark Griffith ran the Senators as a family operation. Calvin and Thelma eventually worked for the team along with the siblings who had stayed with James Robertson. As a 12-year-old, Calvin Griffith was a bat boy for the Senators at the high point for the team in Washington.

The Senators were guided by a veteran and a relative youngster in 1924. Walter Johnson (shown below), in his 18th season, led the American League with 23 wins. The second baseman, 27-year-old Bucky Harris, was in his first year of managing Washington while acquiring the nickname, "Boy Wonder."

The Senators stopped a three-year pennant streak by the New York Yankees and went to the World Series, against the New York Giants, who had won their fourth straight National League pennant. Those pulling for the Senators included President Calvin Coolidge, who attended the World Series games in the capital. Many fans were excited that the 36-year-old Johnson finally had made it to the World Series. However, Johnson was the losing pitcher in the 12-inning opener as well as the fifth game, and it looked like he wouldn't get the World Series win that so many were hoping for.

The World Series went to a decisive seventh game, and though Johnson didn't start, he entered the game after the Senators scored two runs on Harris's bad-hop single to tie the score in the last of the eighth. The Big Train, as Johnson was known, again had a shot at a World Series win, one that would give his team the championship. The victory, for Johnson and the Senators, came in the last of the 12th when Earl McNeely doubled home Muddy Ruel.

Another celebration came in 1925, although this time it was for only a league championship. Johnson won two games in the World Series against Pittsburgh. However, in the seventh game, he couldn't hold a four-run lead in the final game and lost to the Pirates.

As Clark Griffith worked his family members into the Senators organization, some worked their way into the family. Shortstop Joe Cronin came to Washington in 1928 and began courting Mildred Robertson, who was Griffith's secretary and his niece. Cronin became player-manager in 1933 as the Senators won 99 games to win the pennant although they lost to the Giants in the World Series. Cronin and Robertson got married near the end of the 1934 season. While they were on their honeymoon, Cronin got the word that he had been traded to the Boston Red Sox. The deal included $250,000 from the Red Sox, an indication of how Griffith was always in need of money, to the point that he would unload a family member.

Bucky Harris returned as manager, continuing a pattern under Clark Griffith of Washington managers who had played for the team. In the 1940s, Ossie Bluege took the helm for five years. Bluege was an organization lifer, having played for the Senators for 18 years before becoming a coach and then manager. Bluege became farm director – he is credited with discovering Harmon Killebrew – and then the team's comptroller, a role he kept in the 1960s after Washington moved to Minnesota.

During World War II, the Senators were among teams who cut expenses with Griffith relying on an inexpensive and untapped pool of talent in Latin America. While the Senators scaled back on scouts, one man, Joe Cambria, stood out as Griffith's Caribbean connection, particularly in Cuba and especially after skin color no longer disqualified a player from organized baseball.

Clark Griffith died in 1955, and nephew Calvin took over as president. The Senators were as dismal as ever, and the usual low finish in the standings was commensurate with the small number of fans who attended games at Griffith Stadium.

The Senators had played on the same site since 1904, in a park that had been used by a Washington team in the National League in the 1890s. In March of 1911, the park's wooden stands burned. The grandstand was quickly rebuilt with steel and concrete and expanded over the years. It took the name Griffith Stadium in the 1920s and was notable for a quirky right-angle detour of the fence in center field to avoid several houses behind it as well as for its long distances to left field. Two players – Mickey Mantle and Josh Gibson – hit blasts long enough to clear the grandstand beyond the left-field fence, but it was a graveyard for right-handed hitters. For years, the distance down the line was more than 400 feet. The distance was reduced in the 1950s, eventually to 350 feet, making it more inviting for up-and-coming sluggers such as Bob Allison and Harmon Killebrew.

Even with an improving farm system and the arrival of young talent, Washington continued to lose more than 90 games a season. As season attendance stayed consistently below 500,000, and as other major-league teams were relocating, Calvin Griffith explored a new home for the Senators and finally, after the 1960 season, got permission to move to Minnesota.

The players the Senators developed and acquired – besides Allison and Killebrew, there were Camilo Pascual, Jim Kaat, and Earl Battey – became the All-Stars of the 1960s. Unfortunately for Washington, and fortunately for Minnesota, they did so as Twins rather than as Senators.

...the last Twin to hit a home run from the pitcher spot was (infielder) Ryan Fitzgerald, September 9, 2025 at Los Angeles-AL. Fitzgerald finished a 12-2 loss on the mound, homering in the ninth inning. It marked the second instance in Twins history of that particular scenario happening, where a position player homered from the pitcher spot. On September 2, 2018 at Texas (catcher) Chris Gimenez homered in the ninth inning in an 18-4 loss, finishing the game on the mound for Minnesota.

The last Twins "actual pitcher" to hit a home run was Jim Kaat, June 11, 1972 at Cleveland.

DID YOU Know?

...that in 1976, Twins pitcher Bill Campbell went 17-5 with a 3.00 ERA and 20 saves in 78 relief appearances. He became the second player in major league history to win and save at least 15 games in a season since saves became an official statistic in 1969 (Dodgers' Mike Marshall won 15 and saved 21 in 1974). Campbell's 17 victories tied the American League record for wins in relief. In 1977, Twins reliever Tom Johnson became the third player in major league history to win and save at least 15 games. He finished the season 16-7 with a 3.12 ERA and 15 saves in 71 relief appearances.

...that Al Worthington led the American League in saves with 18 in 1968, becoming the first Twin to do so. Worthington achieved the feat in his age-39 season, matching Philadelphia's Joe Berry (1944) for the second-oldest player to lead the AL in saves. The Twins have had a pitcher lead the league in saves five times – Worthington in 1968, Ron Perranoski in 1969 and 1970, Mike Marshall in 1979 and Eddie Guardado in 2002.

TARGET FIELD®

The Minnesota Twins moved into the award-winning Target Field prior to the 2010 season. The ballpark is a modern architectural expression, a dichotomy of Minnesotans' cosmopolitan lifestyle so rooted in nature and the outdoors. The stone and glass landmark, topped by a metal-clad, sculpted roof canopy, is chiseled into downtown Minneapolis on one of Major League Baseball's smallest sites. The ballpark's urban appeal is enhanced with immediate access to light rail and commuter rail, bridging the site to its urban surroundings and spurring the ongoing development and transformation of the western corner of downtown.

Now in its 17th season, Target Field is the Midwest region's premier sporting and entertainment venue, while earning widespread acclaim as one of the most unique and spectacular ballparks in all of Major League Baseball. Here is a list of features that help make the Twins' outdoor home unlike any other baseball experience in America.

MATERIALS

Native Minnesota limestone forms the mass of the ballpark's exterior façade. Glass and metal details punctuate the limestone surface, creating a sophisticated composition. In addition, whenever possible, the ballpark and surrounding areas incorporate native Minnesota flowers, trees and shrubs.

SEATING

Target Field features one of the closest seating bowls to the playing field in all of Major League Baseball. Seats in Target Field feature more leg room and are articulated towards the field of play. The ballpark also features more aisles with fewer seats per row.

CONCOURSE

The ballpark features a 360-degree open main concourse, giving fans an uninterrupted view of the playing field.

Approximate Capacity	38,544
Seating in Lower Level	18,640
Seating in Upper Level	14,703
Seating in Club Level	5,201
Concourse Width (main)	40 feet
Concourse Width (upper)	26-44 feet
Restrooms	401 (w) 266 (m)

CLIMATE/SHELTER

The Twins are committed to providing a comfortable experience for the fans — even when our weather is less than perfect. Fans are able to take advantage of heated concessions, restrooms, and restaurant and lounge areas found on each ballpark level, including the Terrace level. Target Field's roof canopy — one of the largest in baseball — provides added protection, while the Gate 34 area (revamped prior to 2019) provides shelter for fans entering through the ballpark's main gate.

CELEBRATING MINNESOTA'S RICH BASEBALL HERITAGE

Target Field celebrates the heritage and history of our game across the Upper Midwest. The ballpark includes tributes to the great Twins teams and players from the past, other Minnesota baseball icons and baseball players, and teams and ballparks of all levels.

EVOLVING AND ADAPTING

Under the leadership of the Pohlad family, the Twins continually examine all aspects of the ballpark with an eye towards evolving, adapting and ultimately improving the Target Field experience for fans, players, staff and neighbors alike. Accordingly, Target Field has undergone several significant renovations, additions and enhancements since opening in 2010 (please see pages 475-479 for more information).

TARGET FIELD EVENTS

Target Field is home to far more than just Twins baseball. From hockey to football and preps to pros, with everything from global concert tours to large-scale trade shows, and from corporate celebrations to intimate gatherings such as weddings, the Twins host more than 200 non-baseball events annually.

TARGET FIELD EXPERIENCE

A day or evening spent at Target Field, be it for championship-caliber Twins baseball, an electrifying concert, a world-class sporting event, or more, has become affectionately known throughout the region as the "Target Field Experience" — a moniker that captures the confluence of entertainment, joy and community spirit found only at the Twins' home ballpark.

Major Non-Twins Events (2022 NHL Winter Classic)

"The Winter Classic couldn't look better at Target Field. What an awesome moment for the State of Hockey."

That sentiment, posted on social media by St. Paul Pioneer Press reporter Dane Mizutani and subsequently shared internationally by thousands, gave words to the emotions that nearly 40,000 people at Target Field — and another 1.4 million watching on television — felt before, during and after the 2022 Discover NHL Winter Classic® on New Year's Day.

Thanks to the drive of Minnesota Wild Owner & Governor Craig Leipold and President & Alternate Governor Matt Majka; the shared passion of Minnesota Twins Executive Chair Jim Pohlad and President & CEO Dave St. Peter; the vision of NHL executives; and the commitment and hard work of hundreds of people, Target Field was transformed into a hockey winter wonderland. The resulting New Year's Day setting was truly spectacular, shining a deserved spotlight on the Twin Cities and Minnesota.

Jamie Hersch, a Minnesota-born analyst for both the NHL and MLB Network (and a former Bally Sports North personality), shared with her viewers that "I always tell people that the Land of 10,000 Lakes also means the Land of 10,000 Frozen Pond Hockey Rinks." It was thus only fitting that the Winter Classic showcased Minnesota's love affair with hockey in its purest form, regardless of (or perhaps because of!) the elements.

2022 DISCOVER NHL WINTER CLASSIC®

DATE	Saturday, January 1, 2022

TIME OF GAME	2:42

* marked 3rd-coldest event in North American pro sports history

The first-ever Winter Classic played at night also became the coldest outdoor game in NHL history, with a temperature of -8 degrees Fahrenheit at puck drop that made this Wild-St. Louis Blues contest the third-chilliest event in North American pro sports history (behind only a pair of infamous NFL games: the 1967 "Ice Bowl" in Green Bay that was -13° at kickoff, and the 1982 "Freezer Bowl" in Cincinnati that began with a -9° reading). Despite the cold and the hometown Wild's 6-4 loss, the sellout crowd of 38,619 stayed energetic throughout, enthralled by the spectacle of "Lake Winter Classic" at Target Field.

As Mizutani opined in the Pioneer Press, "With nearly 40,000 fans packed into the stands, the Minneapolis skyline twinkling in the background, and the temperature hovering around minus-10 degrees all night long, the Winter Classic was always going to be something for Minnesotans to remember." And it certainly was. From kids joining Minnesota luminaries to skate on the outfield "ponds" to a ceremonial puck drop featuring Twins legends Justin Morneau, Kent Hrbek, Joe Mauer and then-new Hall of Fame electee Tony Oliva; from Vocal Essence's powerful delivery of the national anthem to country music superstar Thomas Rhett's scintillating first intermission concert; from 7-year-old Adam Christopher Scott's stirring rendition of Herb Brooks' legendary "Miracle" speech during the second period to a near-stunning third-period rally by the Wild, the Winter Classic at Target Field was electric from start to finish.

At the end of this awe-inspiring night in the State of Hockey, the 2022 Discover NHL Winter Classic® had created memories to last a lifetime. Or, as Star Tribune reporter Sarah McLellan so aptly summarized:

"The Winter Classic became a postcard for Minnesota."

THE "GREENEST" BALLPARK IN AMERICA

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL GREEN GLOVE AWARD

The Twins won the 2021 Green Glove Award, given to the Major League Baseball club with the highest waste diversion rate during the previous year. In beating six other finalists, the Twins became the first club other than the San Francisco Giants or Seattle Mariners to win the award since its inception in 2008.

During the 2021 season, the Twins saved more than 99 percent of Target Field waste from landfills: 33.8 percent via composting, 34.4 percent via recycling and 31.1 percent via a waste-to-energy partnership with the Hennepin Energy Recovery Center (HERC).

TARGET FIELD WASTE DIVERSION

More than 99 percent of waste generated at Target Field is diverted from landfills — a process driven by the Twins, the club's partners and the in-ballpark efforts of fans.

CAPTURING AND REUSING RAINWATER

Through a custom-designed Rain Water Recycle System provided by Minneapolis-based Pentair, the Twins have captured, purified and reused nearly 20 million total gallons of rainwater since Target Field opened, drastically reducing the use of municipal water at the ballpark. The majority of recycled rainwater is used to wash down the seating bowl attached to the main concourse.

RECYCLING, COMPOSTING AND CONVERTING WASTE TO ENERGY

Through aggressive recycling and waste-to-energy programs, the Twins have kept more than 19,000 tons of waste out of local landfills from 2011 to 2025.

7,280 tons of waste have been recycled from Target Field
6,506 tons of organic materials have been composted and diverted from landfills
5,722 tons of trash have been sent to the Hennepin Energy Recovery Center (HERC)

DONATING UNUSED FOOD TO LOCAL CHARITIES

The Twins and concessionaire partner Delaware North Sportservice donate more than five tons of food to local charities each season. Through a partnership with Rock and Wrap it Up!, Inc., all prepared but untouched meals at Target Field are boxed up and donated to local charities. These efforts have kept more than 100 tons of waste out of local landfills.

The Twins are proud to partner with Delaware North Sportservice, Uponor, Ecolab, Marsden Services, Pentair, Republic Services and Rock and Wrap it Up! Inc. for sustainability efforts at Target Field.

TARGET FIELD
Target Field Station

Opened in spring of 2014, Target Field Station connects people and places, as this multi-modal transportation hub at 5th St. N and 5th Ave. N in downtown Minneapolis offers public green spaces, connections to hundreds of trains daily via the METRO Blue and Green lines, the Northstar Commuter Rail, as well as access to the North Loop neighborhood. Target Field Station's more than 104,000 square feet of space include a public plaza for year-round special events and activities, green space, a 1,000-seat amphitheater, office space, retail shops and a 286-car underground parking garage. The Minnesota Twins, Target and Hennepin County offer programming and special events in the public space.

TARGET FIELD STATION PROVIDES a connection for commuters, baseball fans, downtown visitors and riders connecting to other Metro Transit services — including Blue and Green Line Light Rail service to St. Paul, the airport and Mall of America, the Northstar Commuter Rail Line, as well as bus service from the nearby 5th Street Transit Center. Future transit lines and plans to develop a transportation hub will create additional regional connections for Target Field commuters.

THE PURPOSE of Target Field Station is to provide high-quality transit service and efficient access to Minneapolis and surrounding communities. This hub encourages greater use of public transportation within the Twin Cities due to a centrally-located facility, and improved multi-modal and pedestrian connections.

LOCATED on the north side of the park, Target Field Station is connected to the North Loop neighborhood. The name refers to the trolley line that once ran through the area, which is part of Minneapolis' Warehouse District. It connects the North Loop neighborhood with its roots.

THE BLUE LINE runs from Target Field to the Mall of America. The Central Corridor — Green Line — runs down University Avenue to St. Paul's Union Depot.

TARGET FIELD® Upgrades

The Twins are continually examining all aspects of their home ballpark with an eye towards evolving, adapting and ultimately improving the Target Field experience for fans, players, staff and neighbors alike. Following are the major renovations, additions and enhancements at Target Field since it opened in 2010.

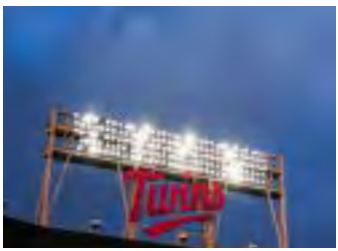
RIGHT FIELD VIDEOBOARD AND TWINS TOWER (2010-11 OFFSEASON; FURTHER ENHANCEMENTS IN 2022-23 OFFSEASON) - Located next to each other behind the right field grand stand, the videoboard and Twins Tower were first introduced before the 2011 season, then further enhanced before the 2023 offseason as part of the Twins' "Scoreboard 2.0" project with Daktronics and Dimensional Innovations (please see page 486 for more information).

CORONA RIGHT FIELD PATIO (2012-13 OFFSEASON) - The Twins replaced regular seating in the right field corner and unveiled "porch seating" in an area designed to be an exciting destination for both group and single-game ticket purchasers, similar to the Budweiser Roof Deck in left field. Beginning on Opening Day 2022, this area became known as the Corona Right Field Patio.

CARBLISS CLUBHOUSE (2014-15 OFFSEASON; RENOVATED AGAIN 2019-20 OFFSEASON; FURTHER ENHANCED 2025-26 OFFSEASON) - Originally built after the 2014 season to replace a team store and add more drink rails, this open-air bar features a festive environment, great views of the game and - beginning in 2026 - premium, handcrafted Carbliss cocktails. Located adjacent to the left field foul pole, inside Gate 6.

DELTA SKY360° SUITE AND CUTWATER COCKTAIL BAR AT MINNIE & PAUL'S (2015-16 OFFSEASON; RENOVATED AGAIN 2023-24 OFFSEASON) - The Twins and Populous transformed the center field seating area into a multi-level fan gathering space. The upper level, featuring Cutwater Cocktail Bar at Minnie & Paul's, is open to all fans and includes Cutwater's premium cocktails, perfectly mixed, plus food from Minnesota's own Pizza Lucé and Red Cow. The lower tier houses the Delta SKY360° Suite, an all-inclusive club with access to approximately 120 Twins Season Ticket Holders.

LED LIGHTING (2016-17 OFFSEASON) - The field lighting was upgraded to LED technology, reducing fixture count from 746 to approximately 512 and cutting energy use by approximately 55%. Additionally, the LED technology provides an improved look for not only fans at the ballpark, but also for television viewers. LED fixtures were also installed to illuminate the underside of the canopy, allowing for flexibility to change colors as desired.



TRULY ON DECK (2017-18 OFFSEASON) - Renovated in 2018, the space formerly known as the "Metropolitan Club" was improved to accommodate any guest, making it open to all fans with a game-day ticket. The expansive renovation includes operable glass windows, opening the space to the full Target Field experience. With indoor and outdoor seating, state-of-the-art video elements, Minnesota-based artist murals and major Twins award history on display, Truly On Deck is a great setting before, during or after the game.

"LIVING WALL" BATTER'S EYE (2018-19 OFFSEASON) - Replacing the previous black backdrop, the Target Field living wall system is the first of its kind for a Major League Baseball batter's eye and, at 2,280 square feet, is among the largest in the continental United States. The living wall incorporates approximately 5,700 sea green juniper plants, individually installed and secured in a tiered, multiple-tray system. Together, the junipers create a consistent, stationary background without variations in color or texture.

GATE 34 AREA

Beginning in 2018, accelerating in 2019 and continuing through 2020 and into 2021, the Twins added more than 9,300 square feet to the Gate 34 area, enhancing ingress and egress, while transforming Target Field's "front door" into a dynamic, vibrant space for fans to gather, eat and drink, play lawn games, relax and enjoy the shared experience of Twins Baseball.

EXPANDED CONCOURSE AND DRAFTS AT 34 - In 2018, the Twins expanded the main concourse at the intersection of Gates 29 and 34 by as much as 40 feet, creating enhanced ingress and egress for fans. This renovation also cut down on congestion and provided fans with new, premium drink rail standing-room locations. Also included in the concourse renovation was a tap wall known as DRAFTS at 34, which features more than 20 unique beers from across Twins Territory.

SUN CRUISER 10,000 LAKES BAR AND GATE 34 LAWN - Beginning in 2021, the main entrance to Target Field became home to a pair of new gathering spots before or during the game. The Sun Cruiser 10,000 Lakes Bar features food and beverage options, while the 5,600-square-foot Gate 34 Lawn is an inviting place for kids, families and all fans to kick back and relax on weather-resistant furniture; or, to enjoy a game of catch and a spirited round of favorite lawn games such as cornhole. On select game days, the lawn also hosts Bullseye's Backyard presented by Target with interactive activities for all ages.

Upgrades, Continued...

UNITEDHEALTHCARE SENSORY SUITE (2021-22 OFFSEASON) - The Twins are proud to invite neurodivergent guests of all ages and abilities to visit Target Field's state-of-the-art UnitedHealthcare Sensory Suite. Located on the UnitedHealthcare Suite Level, the former "Suite 1" was completely renovated before the 2022 season and, in partnership with leading health care experts, reimagined and equipped to provide a welcoming, compatible environment in which neurodivergent guests may find temporary respite, if needed, during games. The spacious Sensory Suite features unique, separated spaces specifically designed to meet different needs, including those of children and adults, while on-site staffers have been individually trained to deliver appropriate and diverse assistance. The UnitedHealthcare Sensory Suite's unique location is meant to ensure accessibility, while also helping to ease guests' transition back to their ticketed seats by offering a controlled, outdoor area overlooking the game. This outdoor option makes Target Field's sensory area among a select few professional sports venues nationally to have a view of the playing surface.

CUB AT TARGET FIELD (2021-22 OFFSEASON) - Located inside Gate 6 down the left field line, "CUB at Target Field" is an open-air, walk-through environment delivering both fresh hot food and pre-packaged grab-and-go items not available elsewhere in the ballpark, and — in a first for local sports venues — a walk-in cooler featuring an extensive variety of canned craft beers. Guests can enjoy this customizable, interactive shopping experience at their own pace, before quickly and efficiently purchasing their items through self-checkout stations.

GATE 29 MOSAIC (2021-22 OFFSEASON) - The Twins brought public art celebrating the diversity of our city, state and region — not just on game day, but 365 days a year — to the ballpark's "front porch" outside Gate 29. Designed by the renowned Minneapolis duo of mosaic artist Daniela Bianchini and muralist Kalaka, and showcasing the themes of "All Are Welcome at Target Field" and "Celebrating Our Community's Rich Diversity," this majestic glass mosaic is as varied and uniquely special as the people it represents. Comprised of thousands of individual glass pieces, the 66-foot-long mural brings many of Minnesota's cultures and communities together in a colorful expression of unity.

THE PLAYING SURFACE (2021-22 OFFSEASON) - After 12 years, 928 Major League Baseball games (including the 2014 All-Star Game), 11 years of the Minnesota State High School League championships, 40 college baseball games (including the 2013 and 2015 Big Ten Conference tournaments), 17 concerts, two college football games, one soccer friendly and the 2022 Discover NHL Winter Classic®, the playing surface at Target Field was replaced for the first time prior to the 2022 Twins season. This extensive project, which began February 24, 2022, and was completed in late-March, involved crews entirely comprised of Minnesotans. The new playing surface again features the same four-way blend of Kentucky Bluegrass, with the foundational sand coming from Elk River, Minnesota. The old (original) turf was broken down into reusable material.

WOMEN IN BASEBALL MURAL (2022-23 OFFSEASON) - Unveiled prior to the 2023 Home Opener and located adjacent to Keeper's Heart Town Ball Tavern, the "Women in Baseball Mural" celebrates the past, present and future of women in baseball, with a specific historical focus on the Upper Midwest. Designed and created by women, for women, by the Twins Women's Initiative Network (T.W.I.N.) in collaboration with Kim Cameron and Kristie Kordosky of St. Louis Park, MN-based Art Partners, 15 women (or groups of women) are portrayed on the mural.

THE DOCK PRESENTED BY WINNEBAGO INDUSTRIES (2023-24 OFFSEASON) - In true Minnesota fashion (and in a setting unique across Major League Baseball), fans at Target Field can combine the luxury of Winnebago Industries' boat brands with the excitement of Twins baseball. Beginning with the 2024 Home Opener, and located in section 137 beyond the rightfield wall, "The Dock" presented by Winnebago Industries features seating for up to 12 people in a specially crafted, elevated section inspired by the open bow feel of Chris-Craft and Barletta boats.

MAIN CONCOURSE CONCESSIONS (2024-25 OFFSEASON) - The Twins modernized one of the most highly-trafficked concession areas of Target Field, replacing the traditional "belly-up" model for food stands at sections 105 and 109 of the main concourse with new open-air, self-serve market concepts totaling 4,400 square feet of renovated spaces. The new layouts increased point-of-sale from 29 to 41 and created a free-flowing shopping experience, providing fans with a quicker, more efficient and more convenient way to get their favorite food and beverages. Twins fans enjoy access to a variety of hot foods and ballpark favorites, grab-and-go snack options, ice cream, a soda fountain and grab-and-go beer coolers.

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL GO-AHEAD ENTRY (2024-25 OFFSEASON) - MLB Go-Ahead Entry is an optional, facial authentication-based ticket validation system developed by Major League Baseball as part of a continual effort to improve the fan experience of attending games. Fans with tickets to a Twins home game can register via the MLB Ballpark app and then walk directly into Target Field by themselves or with their group, without stopping to scan tickets; by using MLB Go-Ahead Entry, combined with the Twins' previous implementation of the Evolv Express® screening solution, Twins fans can now enjoy the ultimate hands-free, free-flow entry experience. Fans who choose to use MLB Go-Ahead Entry at Target Field may do so at designated lane(s) at Gates 6, 29 and 34.

AMERICAN TOWER DAS NETWORK & 5G UPGRADE (2025-26 OFFSEASON) - The Twins' new partnership with American Tower delivers an expansive, ballpark-wide upgrade to 5G via a state-of-the-art digital antenna system (DAS). Cellular network coverage was expanded by 82 percent within Target Field and was upgraded to the 5G system for all three major mobile network carriers, significantly improving data upload and download speeds throughout the ballpark. Combined with Target Field's existing Wi-Fi 6 system, the entire ballpark digital fan journey - from ticketing to concessions to posting on social media - is now faster.

UNITEDHEALTHCARE CHAMPIONS CLUB (2025-26 OFFSEASON)
- Renovated for the first time since Target Field opened in 2010, the reimagined and renamed UnitedHealthcare Champions Club delivers premium year-round experiences that celebrate Twins baseball and community impact. Guests enter via valet parking and a private entrance, and enjoy an elegant, welcoming space with a seasonal, chef-curated menu, two full-service bars featuring craft cocktails and top-shelf spirits, complimentary in-seat food and beverage service, and timeless design elements that evoke legendary players, teams and moments in Twins history. A focal point is the UnitedHealthcare Community Champions wall, highlighting individuals across Twins Territory who are building a better tomorrow. Twenty-one changemakers – 20 legacy members and one rotating Community Hero of the Homestand – are celebrated for creating meaningful, lasting impact in the areas of health, inclusion, education, mentorship, community resilience and cultural contribution.

MINNIE & PAUL CELEBRATION SIGN

A hallmark of Target Field since the ballpark opened in 2010, the new Minnie & Paul celebration sign imbues nostalgia with technological enhancements.

Design: Taking elements from the Twins' primary logos from the 1961-86 seasons, the historical characters of Ray Barton's original sketch are again depicted shaking hands across the Mississippi River, while "Win! Twins!" completes the scene, which is framed within the Minnesota state outline.

Dimensions: 46' high x 39' wide (same as previous).
17,280 pounds (11,700 pounds of which is the steel frame).

Handshake: Rather than the shifting light display of the prior iteration, Minnie & Paul's handshake is now mechanical with moving arms.

REVOLVING BASEBALL MEDALLION AND "TC" LOGO

Sitting atop the "Twins Tower" in right field, the combined effect of the new, luminous baseball medallion and the encased, illuminated "TC" logo creates a brilliant "Beacon to the City" and a focal point for Target Field, downtown Minneapolis and all Twins fans.

Design: The baseball medallion is technically a three-frequency geodesic sphere made up of icosahedron triangles — the higher the frequency, the more triangles there are. The more triangles it has, the stronger and more spherical it becomes; the baseball rotates around an internal "TC" logo.

Dimensions: The baseball medallion is approximately 12' in diameter.
The internal "TC" stands 9' tall.
Total weight is 2,500 pounds (including its steel support).

LED Lighting: The baseball medallion has 60 programmable RGBW LED nodes, spaced equally at hub connections (there are 70 pairs of illuminated stitches).
The "TC" is internally illuminated on both sides.

The $29.5 million project, which also replaced all previous videoboard control room equipment, was funded equally by the Twins and the Minnesota Ballpark Authority's Ballpark Capital Reserve Fund. Video displays were provided by Daktronics (including assembly at the company's Redwood Falls, Minnesota factory), while the Minnie & Paul Celebration Sign and Revolving Baseball Medallion with "TC" logo were designed and built by Dimensional Innovations. The project was executed as a design-build partnership between Mortenson and HGA.

TARGET FIELD® Social Spaces

Since its opening, Target Field has evolved with — and for — Twins fans. Centered on, and enhanced by, the action on the field, an afternoon or evening at the ballpark is ultimately about more than nine innings or your ticketed seat. Twins Baseball is a communal experience, meant to be shared with friends, family and other fans in inclusive and engaging areas. From behind home plate to centerfield, from foul pole to foul pole, across all levels of Target Field and open to any fan with a ticket, the Twins are proud to provide social places for our fans to gather and enjoy the game — together.

DID YOU Know?

...that Target Field has welcomed more than 34,000,000 visitors since 2010 - more than any other Minneapolis venue.

TWINS EARN SAFETY ACT DESIGNATION

In 2024, the Minnesota Twins and Target Field received Support Anti-Terrorism by Fostering Effective Technologies (SAFETY) Act designation by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, becoming the 12th Major League Baseball team to earn the distinction. The SAFETY Act, enacted by Congress in 2002, serves as one of the highest levels of accreditation offered by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security and promotes the development and deployment of effective anti-terrorism measures including technologies, services and personnel trainings.

The Twins were awarded SAFETY Act designation by virtue of the development and implementation of a comprehensive, integrated security system throughout Target Field based on Major League Baseball's Best Stadium Operating practices, other sports and entertainment industry best practices, other industry practices, and government recommendations. This technology is comprised of physical and electronic security measures, tools, policies and procedures, and trained personnel designed to detect, deter, prevent, respond to and mitigate acts of terrorism against Target Field and ballpark ticketholders, visitors, staff and employees.

Metropolitan Stadium hosted the 1965 All-Star Game on July 13, a 6-5 National League victory that featured 18 Hall of Famers, including Harmon Killebrew, Hank Aaron, Roberto Clemente, Bob Gibson, Sandy Koufax, Mickey Mantle, Juan Marichal, Willie Mays, Frank Robinson and Joe Torre. The Twins were represented by six players, marking the most in club history. The two starters for the Twins included Harmon Killebrew, who played first base and batted third and Earl Battey, who played catcher and batted eighth. Killebrew went 1-for-3 with a two-run homer in the fifth inning off Cincinnati's Jim Maloney. Twins in a reserve role included Tony Oliva, who went 1-for-2 with the game's only double; Zoilo Versalles; Jimmie Hall; and Jim "Mudcat" Grant, who allowed two runs in 2.0 innings of relief. The game was ultimately decided by a Ron Santo infield single, scoring Willie Mays in the seventh inning. Juan Marichal started for the NL, pitching 3.0 scoreless innings and earned the game's MVP Award. Sandy Koufax was the winning pitcher, Sam McDowell was the loser, and Bob Gibson was credited with the save as the game lasted two hours and 45 minutes and was played in front of 46,706.

On July 16, 1985, the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome staged the 56th All-Star Game, a 6-1 NL victory that included Hall of Famers Bert Blyleven, George Brett, Wade Boggs, Carlton Fisk, Tony Gwynn, Rickey Henderson, Paul Molitor, Jim Rice, Cal Ripken Jr., Nolan Ryan, Ryne Sandberg, Ozzie Smith and Dave Winfield. The Twins' lone representative was Tom Brunansky, who grounded out to short in his only at-bat in a reserve role and played one inning in right field. The NL jumped out in front early with a Steve Garvey RBI single in the second inning and held the lead throughout. LaMarr Hoyt started for the NL, allowing one unearned run in 3.0 innings pitched, earning the win and the game's MVP Award. Detroit's Jack Morris was the AL starter and suffered the loss. The game lasted two hours and 54 minutes and was played in front of 54,960.

The Dome also played host to the first ever All-Star Home Run Derby, including the Twins' own Tom Brunansky, who hit four home runs, good for second most among the 10 participants. Other participants were Jack Clark, Carlton Fisk, Steve Garvey, Eddie Murray, Dale Murphy, Home Run Derby Champion Dave Parker, Jim Rice, Cal Ripken Jr. and Ryne Sandberg.

TWINS RETIRED NUMBERS

HARMON KILLEBREW 3

One of the greatest home run hitters of all time, Harmon Killebrew will forever be remembered by Twins fans as the 'Killer' for his prolific clouts. A member of the Twins from their inaugural Minnesota season in 1961, Killebrew hit 573 career home runs, 475 of them in his 14 seasons with the Twins, and ranks 12th on the all-time home run list and third (behind Babe Ruth and Alex Rodriguez) in American League history. He hit more than 40 home runs on eight occasions, and 30 or more 10 times, while driving in 100 or more runs nine times.

Killebrew was the American League's Most Valuable Player in 1969 when he hit 49 home runs with an amazing 140 RBI and 145 walks, all team records that still stand. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1984, becoming the first Twin to receive the honor. He had his number 3 formally retired on May 4, 1975, and was selected to the Twins 25th Anniversary Team in 1986 and 40th Season All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000 and named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010.

Killebrew passed away on May 17, 2011.

ROD CAREW 29

No Twins fan will ever forget the graceful power of Rod Carew's hitting stroke. Nor will any baseball enthusiast ever forget the summer of 1977, when Carew made his determined run at the untouchable .400 mark, because, just as Killebrew embodied the power of the game, Carew represented its finesse.

He was a career .328 hitter over his 19 major league seasons and was the winner of seven American League batting titles, all during his 12 years with Minnesota. Carew hit .300 or better 15 consecutive seasons and finished his career with 3,053 hits, which places him 28th among the all-time hit leaders and makes him one of only 33 players to collect 3,000 or more career hits.

Carew, who won the American League Most Valuable Player award in 1977, was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame on the first ballot in 1991. He had his number 29 retired July 19, 1987, and was selected to the Twins 25th Anniversary Team in 1986 and the 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000 and was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010.

TONY OLIVA 6

Pedro 'Tony' Oliva Jr., or 'Tony-O' to those who followed his 24-year career as a Twins player and coach, was a man who seemed to excel in all aspects of the game. He could hit for power and average, run, field and throw, and his versatility made him one of the most feared hitters of his day.

Tony-O collected 1,917 hits and retired with a .304 career average. He is the only player to win batting titles in his first two seasons and was the winner of three in his 15-year career. His prowess as a hitter was demonstrated by the fact that he led the league in hits five times and his 220 career home runs rank fourth all-time among Twins.

Oliva, the 1964 American League Rookie of the Year, began his coaching career in 1976. He now works as a Twins hitting instructor at the major league and minor league level and scouts for the club. He had his number 6 retired July 14, 1991, and was selected to the Twins 25th Anniversary Team in 1986 and the 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000 and was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010.

After decades of waiting for the call, Oliva was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in December 2021 by the Golden Days Era Committee and was inducted in Cooperstown, NY on July 24, 2022.

WASHINGTON SENATORS W

The Twins officially retired the Washington Senators 'W' in August of 2024, honoring the franchise origins and celebrating the great players and teams that comprised the first 60 seasons of Twins/Senators history.

A charter member of the American League in 1901, the original Washington Senators played 60 seasons from 1901-60, during which time the 'W' was worn by legendary players, managers and executives, many of whom are enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY. The Senators won AL pennants in 1924, 1925 and 1933, and won the 1924 World Series with a roster that included Hall of Famers Walter Johnson, Sam Rice, Goose Goslin and player-manager Bucky Harris; the team was owned by another Hall of Famer in former player/manager Clark Griffith. The 1933 pennant-winning squad featured Rice and fellow Senators Hall of Famer Heinie Manush. Additionally, inaugural National Baseball Hall of Famer Johnson debuted for the Senators in 1907, spent his entire 21-season playing career wearing the 'W' and managed the team from 1929-32.

The Senators also made their mark on the Twins when the franchise began its next chapter in Minnesota in 1961. Several Twins legends wore the Senators' 'W' including Hall of Famers Harmon Killebrew (debuted in 1954) and Jim Kaat (debuted in 1959), and Twins Hall of Famers Bob Allison (debuted in 1958), Earl Battey (debuted for the Chicago White Sox in 1955, played for the Senators in 1960), Camilo Pascual (debuted in 1954) and Zoilo Versalles (debuted in 1959).

KENT HRBEK 14

Kent Hrbek grew up in the shadows of Metropolitan Stadium in Bloomington and was destined to become a Minnesota Twin. The big kid had more fun than most and treated Twins fans to much excitement from the day he donned a Twins uniform, homering in his major league debut in the 12th inning at Yankee Stadium to give the Twins a win on August 24, 1981. He finished his career with 293 home runs and 1,086 RBI, both good for second most in club history.

Hrbek, who was runner-up to Cal Ripken Jr. for American League Rookie of the Year in 1982, made his only All-Star appearance that season. He was most appreciated by his teammates and Twins fans for his upper-deck power, agility and for being one of the best ever to play first base. He is among club leaders in nearly every offensive category, but may be best remembered for his Game 6 grand slam in the 1987 World Series, or for his tag of Atlanta's Ron Gant in Game 2 of the 1991 World Series. He had his number 14 formally retired August 13, 1995 and was selected to the Twins 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000, was selected to the All-Metrodome team in 2009 and was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010.

KIRBY PUCKETT 34

Considered by most to be the greatest Twin, 'Puck' was baseball's jewel for 12 incredible seasons. He was a hero from day one, when he became the ninth player in history to collect four hits in his first game on May 8, 1984 at California. The dramatic entrance proved to be just the first of many heroic performances leading up to his shining moment on October 26, 1991, during Game 6 of the World Series against Atlanta. He went 3-for-4, robbed Ron Gant of an extra-base hit, and became the ninth player to end a World Series game with a home run on the final pitch with a drive off Charlie Leibrandt in the 11th inning to force a seventh game.

The 10-time All-Star, six-time Gold Glove Award winner and five-time Silver Slugger Award winner had his career cut short when he awoke with blurred vision caused by glaucoma on March 28, 1996. He was later forced to announce his retirement due to irreversible damage to the retina in his right eye on July 12. He retired as the Twins' all-time leader in hits (2,304), doubles (414), total bases (3,453), at-bats (7,244) and runs (1,071).

Puckett was one of the game's greatest community leaders and was given Major League Baseball's Roberto Clemente Man of the Year Award in 1996. He was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame on the first ballot in 2001 and became the third-youngest living electee in baseball history (behind Sandy Koufax and Lou Gehrig). He had his number 34 formally retired May 25, 1997 and was selected to the Twins 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000, was selected to the All-Metrodome Team in 2009 and named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010. Puckett passed away on March 6, 2006.

BERT BLYLEVEN 28

After breaking into the big leagues at the age of 19, Blyleven would go on to pitch 11 of his 22 major league seasons with the Twins (1970-76 and 1985-88). His knee-buckling curveball, competitive drive and his knack for being the clubhouse prankster are only a few reasons why Blyleven had a successful career.

Blyleven was named the 1970 American League Rookie Pitcher of the Year and was selected to the American League All-Star Team in 1973 and 1985. He finished his Twins career with a record of 149-138 and a 3.28 ERA. His 2,035 strikeouts are the most in Twins history, while his 149 wins rank second.

The winner of two World Series Championships (1979 with Pittsburgh and 1987 with Minnesota), Blyleven ranks fifth on Major League Baseball's all-time strikeouts list with 3,701.

His number 28 was formally retired July 16, 2011, becoming the first Twins pitcher to have his number retired. Blyleven was selected to the Twins 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame in 2002, was selected to the All-Metrodome Team in 2009 and named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010. Blyleven was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY on July 24, 2011, becoming the first Hall of Famer born in the Netherlands.

TWINS RETIRED NUMBERS

'TK' took over the managerial duties for the Twins on September 12, 1986. In his first full season (1987) as the skipper, he led the Twins to their first World Series Championship. He led the club to their second World Series victory in 1991, which marked the first time in major league history that a team went from last place one season to World Champions the next.

The 1991 American League Manager of the Year had a managerial record of 1140-1244, which places him first on Minnesota's all-time list in wins and games managed. At the time of his retirement after the 2001 season, Kelly was the longest tenured manager/coach in all of major sports. His number 10 was formally retired September 8, 2012, becoming the first Twins manager to receive the honor. Kelly was selected manager on the Twins 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000 and was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010.

JOE MAUER 7

Mauer played 15 seasons in a Twins uniform from 2004-18, joining Tony Oliva as the only players in club history to reach that particular feat. During that time, the 2009 American League Most Valuable Player was named to six AL All-Star teams, earned five Louisville Slugger Silver Slugger Awards, three Rawlings Gold Glove Awards and became the only American League catcher to ever win a batting title, doing so three different times in 2006, 2008 and 2009.

CARL R. POHLAD

OWNER, 1984-2009

With the franchise facing a possible move out of state, Pohlad purchased the Twins in 1984. He was motivated by a sense of community responsibility and a feeling that major league sports, particularly baseball, are important assets that contribute to the quality of life in the community.

Pohlad enjoyed great success upon taking ownership of the Twins by providing leadership that resulted in two World Series Championships in 1987 and 1991 and back-to-back-to-back American League Central Division Championships from 2002 to 2004.

The on-field success of the franchise was largely due to Pohlad's ability to build and manage an exceptional baseball organization with a strong emphasis on player development. HUBERT H. HUMPHREY METRODOME

- Opened April 3, 1982, the Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome was home to the Twins for 28 years. It was the third domed facility in baseball and remained the only air-supported structure of its kind until its demolition in January of 2014.
- The Metrodome is the only stadium in the world to play host to the World Series (1987 and 1991), Major League Baseball's All-Star Game (1985), the Super Bowl (XXVI, 1992) and the NCAA Final Four Basketball Tournament (1992 and 2001).
- Construction began on December 20, 1979 and was built by the state of Minnesota at a cost of approximately $68 million.
- Field dimensions were 343' down the leftfield line, 385' to the leftfield power alley, 408' to dead centerfield, 367' to the rightfield power alley and 327' down the line in right. The fence from leftfield to centerfield was 7' high (plexiglass was above the left field wall from 1985-94, which made the wall 13' high) and the "baggie" in right field was 23' high, including 16' of plastic tarp installed in 1983.
- April 14, 1983: Roof deflated due to tear caused by heavy snow.
- May 4, 1984: Oakland's Dave Kingman hit a ball into one of roof's drainage holes in a fourth inning at-bat. The ball never came down and Kingman was awarded a ground rule double.
- April 26, 1986: Roof suffered slight tear due to high winds, causing a nine minute delay in the bottom of the seventh inning vs. California.
- August 29, 1992: A power outage in the third inning caused a 23 minute delay vs. New York.
- August 5, 2001: A power outage in the area of Minneapolis surrounding the Metrodome caused the air conditioning to shut down, heating the inside of the dome during the game to a temperature of 91 degrees as the Twins fell to the Royals 10-5.
- October 2, 2004: The Twins and Indians were forced to suspend their game after the 11th inning due to a curfew rule in effect for an upcoming University of Minnesota football game.
- October 2, 2005: Upon the conclusion of his 50th year of broadcasting baseball, the Twins re-named the baseball pressbox "The Herb Carneal Press Box" in honor of their long-time radio broadcaster. Carneal died on April 1, 2007.
- August 2, 2007: The Twins and Royals postponed their 12:10 p.m. game a day after the Interstate 35W bridge collapse in Minneapolis.
- October 11, 2009: The Twins lost to the Yankees in the ALDS, marking the club's final game in the Metrodome.
- December 19, 2013: The Vikings defeated the Lions 14-13 in the final sporting event played in the Metrodome.
- January 18, 2014: As a portion of the demolition for the Minnesota Vikings' new stadium, the Metrodome roof was deflated. Demolition was completed in April of 2014.

In 1986, the Minnesota Twins celebrated 25 years of baseball in Minnesota. As part of that celebration, the Twins held a 25th Anniversary Reunion from July 31 to August 3. The weekend began with a banquet in which the Silver Anniversary Team, voted by fans, was announced. The weekend concluded with an Old Timers game, featuring the 1965 World Series Twins against other former Twins, and a pre-game ceremony honoring the Silver Anniversary Team. Fans were treated to a Camera Night in which they were able to take pictures with their favorite former Twins and received a frameable team poster. Below is the 25th Anniversary Team.

40TH SEASON ANNIVERSARY ALL-TIME TEAM

In 2000, the Minnesota Twins celebrated 40 years of baseball in Minnesota. As part of that celebration, the Twins announced the Twins All-Time Team as part of the ballclub's 40th Season Celebration.

Voting for the Twins All-Time Team was split into three phases to include the fans, Upper Midwest media and former Twins players and coaches. Each group's vote counted one-third toward the final balloting results with the top vote recipients at each position automatically being named to the team. The All-Time Team selection committee reserved the right to name additional players to the final roster based upon overall vote totals.

The All-Time Team took part in an on-field pre-game ceremony on August 12, 2000 and a poster depicting the All-Time Team was given to the first 10,000 fans in attendance, courtesy of the Star Tribune.

WCCO NEWS TALK 830

2026 marks the 20th season that the Minnesota Twins control their radio broadcast rights. More than 80 stations in the five-state area carry Twins games and comprise the Treasure Island Baseball Network. In the Minneapolis-St. Paul market, the Twins can be heard on News Talk 830 WCCO, KMNB 102.9 FM The Wolf and streamed on the Audacy app. In 2022, the geo-fence for that live stream was expanded to include the entirety of Twins Territory. The live stream is available for no charge through the Audacy app, website and via smart speakers. Prior to the 2020 season, the Twins and Audacy added a FM simulcast of Twins Baseball on the 100,000 watt 102.9 The Wolf. The move back to 'CCO and Audacy in 2018 marked the return to their original broadcast partner, the Twins home for their first 47 years. The Twins were broadcasted on Go 96.3 for five seasons from 2013-17 and ESPN 1500 for six seasons from 2007-12.

The Twins employ an in-house production team that produces the game broadcasts including pre-game and post-game shows that air on network affiliates. In addition, the network team produces "Inside Twins" that airs Wednesday nights throughout the offseason. During the season, fans across Twins Territory can listen to "Inside Twins" which airs prior to Sunday pregame shows and features Twins President of Business & Baseball Operations Derek Falvey, General Manager Jeremy Zoll, Twins Manager Derek Shelton and other front office staff. This show runs all season and gives fans access into the inner workings of Twins baseball as well as a glimpse through the eyes of the Manager.

In 2007 the Twins, in partnership with the Minnesota News Network, assumed control and development of the Twins Radio Network with Treasure Island Resort & Casino, becoming the first-ever naming rights partner for the network in 2010. Historically, the Treasure Island Baseball Network has been one of the largest in all of Major League Baseball with hometown radio partners bringing Twins baseball to fans across five states.

The Twins also broadcast 50 games in Spanish. Alfonso Fernandez begins his 21st season as play-by-play voice, with Hall of Famer Tony Oliva as the analyst. Games in Spanish can be heard via a stream on LosTwins.com simply by signing in with a free MLB account and is also carried on the SAP channel during Twins.TV broadcasts.

John Gordon Award — Twins Radio Affiliate of the Year

Named after legendary Twins broadcaster, John Gordon, this honor is awarded annually to the Twins radio affiliate that demonstrates the best of Twins Territory in its commitment to the Minnesota Twins and its community.

TWINS 2026 RADIO BROADCASTERS

KRIS ATTEBERRY

TWINS PLAY-BY-PLAY/ANALYST

Kris Atteberry begins his third season as the Twins radio lead play-by-play voice after 17 seasons hosting the Pregame Lineup Card and Postgame Download on the Twins Radio Network as well as providing play-by-play and analysis for select games. Kris has also called men's and women's college basketball on CBS Sports Network.

Kris joined the Twins after spending five summers (2002-06) calling games on radio and television for the St. Paul Saints. Prior to joining the Saints, Kris spent three seasons as the lead broadcaster for the Sioux Falls Canaries. Additionally, he has broadcast men's basketball at Cal State Fullerton, as well as basketball, volleyball and baseball at Pepperdine University. From 2002 to 2006 he served as the voice of Montana State football and basketball, twice earning Montana Sportscaster of the Year accolades.

Atteberry, 53, is a native of Bozeman, MT and a 1996 graduate of Stanford University where, in addition to earning a degree in English Literature, he was awarded a National Association of Athletic Directors post-graduate scholarship for his broadcast work with Cardinal athletics.

DAN GLADDEN

TWINS ANALYST/PLAY-BY-PLAY

Former Twin Dan Gladden enters his 28th year in the Twins radio broadcast booth.

Gladden played in the major leagues for 11 years and retired from professional baseball following the 1994 season. He finished his career batting .270 with 203 doubles, 40 triples, 74 home runs, 446 RBI and 222 stolen bases in 1,197 games.

He made his big league debut in 1983 with the San Francisco Giants, with whom he played for three seasons, and was named to both Topps and Baseball Digest All-Rookie teams in 1984. He was acquired along with pitcher David Blakely by Minnesota in exchange for pitchers Jose Dominguez, Bryan Hickerson and Ray Velasquez on March 31, 1987 and spent five years with the Twins before signing as a free agent with Detroit in 1992. He spent his last year in professional baseball playing for the Yomiuri Giants of the Japan Central League in 1994. From there, Gladden was a major league advance scout for the Colorado Rockies from 1996-98 and a minor league roving instructor for San Francisco in 1999.

Gladden was inducted to the Twins Hall of Fame as part of the Class of 2022, and was a key ingredient in the Twins 1987 and 1991 World Championship teams. His grand slam in Game 1 of the 1987 Series vs. St. Louis capped a seven-run fourth inning and he scored the game-winning run in the 10th inning in Game 7 of the 1991 Series vs. Atlanta.

PAUL MOLITOR

TWINS TELEVISION ANALYST/TWINS RADIO ANALYST

Molitor returns to the Twins radio broadcast for select games, having done so since the 2024 season. He will also serve as color analyst for select Twins.TV broadcasts in 2026. The National Baseball Hall of Famer played 21 seasons with Milwaukee (1978-92), Toronto (1993-95) and Minnesota (1996-98).

He managed the Twins for four seasons from 2015-18 (305-343, .471) and was named the American League Manager of the Year in 2017 after guiding the Twins to a record of 85-77 and an American League Wild Card berth. The St. Paul native was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2004 (first ballot) and is one of just seven players in baseball history (Ty Cobb, Honus Wagner, Eddie Collins, Lou Brock, Rickey Henderson and Ichiro Suzuki) to amass at least 3,000 hits, 500 stolen bases and a .300 batting average-or higher. The University of Minnesota alumnus (1975-77) was originally drafted by the Brewers with the third overall pick in the 1977 First-Year Player Draft and ranks 10th on baseball's all-time list in hits (3,319), 15th in doubles (605), 16th in at-bats (10,835), 20th in runs (1,782), 35th in games (2,683) and 39th in stolen bases (504). GLEN PERKINS

The 2026 season will mark Minnesota native Perkins' eighth season in a broadcasting role for the Twins, after beginning as a pre and post game analyst in 2019. He is slated to serve both in that role and as a color analyst for select Twins television broadcasts in 2026. Perk will also be mixed into a handful of radio analyst duties for the 2026 season, joining Kris Atteberry and Dan Gladden.

The St. Paul native was selected by the Twins in the first round (22nd overall) of the 2004 First-Year Player Daft out of the University of Minnesota. The southpaw made his major league debut on September 21, 2006 and spent his entire 12-year career with the Twins, going 35-25 with a 3.88 ERA (624.1 IP, 269 ER), 120 saves, 158 walks and 504 strikeouts in 409 games (44 starts). He ranks among the club's all-time pitching leaders in saves (3rd), games finished (228, 5th) and games played (6th).

Perkins is one of eight players in Twins history to spend their entire career (min. 10 years played) with the club. He was also a three-time All-Star (2013-15) and earned the save in the American League's 5-3 win in the 2014 MLB All-Star Game at Target Field.

SPANISH LANGUAGE RADIO BROADCAST

The Twins will broadcast 50 Spanish language games through a stream on the homepage of LosTwins.com. In addition to the stream, these broadcasts will be transmitted via SAP (secondary audio program) on the Twins television partner Twins.TV. The Twins, who were the first professional sports team in the Twin Cities market to broadcast games in Spanish, return Hall of Famer and color analyst Tony Oliva, and play-by-play announcer Alfonso Fernandez, to the broadcast booth for their 21st season together. All 50 games will include a 15 minute pre- and post-game show.

He was the first to broadcast basketball in Spanish in the Los Angeles area and has spent 33 years behind the microphone.

TONY OLIVA

SPANISH RADIO, ANALYST

Pedro 'Tony' Oliva Jr., or 'Tony-O' to those who followed his 24-year career as a Twins player and coach, was a man who seemed to excel in all aspects of the game. He could hit for power and average, run, field and throw, and his versatility made him one of the most feared hitters of his day. He was inducted to the National Baseball Hall of Fame on July 24, 2022.

Tony-O collected 1,917 hits and retired with a .304 career average. He is the only player to win batting titles in his first two seasons and was the winner of three in his 15-year career. His prowess as a hitter was demonstrated in the fact that he led the league in hits five times, and his 220 career home runs rank fourth all-time among Twins.

Oliva, the 1964 American League Rookie of the Year, began his coaching career in 1976. He also works as a hitting instructor in the Twins minor league system and scouts for the club. He had his number 6 retired July 14, 1991 and was selected to the Twins 25th Anniversary Team in 1986 and the 40th Season Anniversary All-Time Team in 2000. He was inducted into the Twins Hall of Fame on August 12, 2000, and was named one of the "50 Greatest Twins" in 2010. In 2013, he became the eighth ever recipient of the Herb Carneal Lifetime Achievement Award.

MINNESOTA TWINS MEDIA POLICIES

This is an abbreviated version of the Twins' media policies for the 2026 regular season; for the club's full policies, please visit the Twins' club content page on credentials.mlb.com or contact the Twins directly.

CREDENTIALS

Full season credentials will be issued for 2026 regular season games at Target Field to media who will cover approximately 70 percent of Twins home games. BBWAA cards and Gold Cards will be accepted for the 2026 season; cardholders are not required to notify the Twins in advance but are asked to do so. Daily credentials are also available and single-day credential requests must be submitted online through credentials.mlb.com at least 24 hours ahead of the requested date. No other credential requests will be accepted, via email or otherwise. The application deadline for each day will be 5:00 p.m. CT the day before. If media members are approved for a daily credential and cannot attend, please notify the Twins Communications staff as soon as possible. By submitting a request and receiving a media credential for access to Target Field, a media member will be required to observe all MLB and Twins rules. Credentials are not transferable and are subject to terms and conditions. The Twins also reserve the right to designate credential access to media.

MEDIA ENTRY/PARKING

Media will pick up credentials and enter through the Target Field Media Entrance, located off Target Plaza between Gates 29 and 34. The media entrance will open three hours before first pitch for day games and 4.5 hours before first pitch for night games. The Twins do not provide gameday parking for media; media are recommended to park in the various City of Minneapolis parking ramps adjacent to Target Field, namely Ramps A, B and C, and the Hawthorne Ramp.

PRESSBOX ACCESS

The Herb Carneal Pressbox is located on Level 2 at Target Field, near the Thrivent Club. Seating charts will be in effect for select games with high media capacity (including the Home Opener) and media are asked to follow the charts when posted. Every game, priority seating access will be given to affiliates who routinely cover the Twins and/or the opposing team.

MEDIA DINING

The Twins Room, located on the Service Level (-2) near the Press Elevator, will be open for media dining during the 2026 season. It will open one hour prior to gates opening, stay open until game time and cost $13. Cash will not be accepted.

INTERVIEWS

Most interviews may be conducted on the field during batting practice where the manager, players and coaches are usually available, as long as the interview does not interrupt their pre-game routine. Members of the media must stay in foul territory between first and third base. In-depth interviews that require more time with a player should be pre-arranged through the Twins Communications department. Reporters and broadcasters must leave the field, with photographers reporting to their assigned photo positions, no later than one-half hour before game time..

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS

Clubhouse access will be limited to members of the Baseball Writers' Association of America (BBWAA) and to coverage reporters of area daily newspapers, radio and TV stations. The Twins clubhouse will be open to media with clubhouse credentials until one hour prior to each game and then reopen no longer than 10 minutes following each game; pregame clubhouse timings could vary, so please check with a member of the Twins Communications department for precise timings. Still photographers are not allowed in the clubhouse at any time. On the occasion of a team meeting, the clubhouse will be closed until the conclusion of the meeting. Clubhouse access is limited to the player-locker area and the manager's office. The training room, dining room and weight room are off-limits to everyone except the manager, coaches, players and Twins officials. The dugout is off limits during the game for everyone except the manager, coaches, players, trainers and certain Club officials.

GAMEDAY INFORMATION

Printed materials (game notes, rosters, lineup sheets, statpacks, etc.) will be available in both the Twins Communications Office and pressbox on gamedays. These materials will also be electronically disseminated to media when available and can be found on twinspressbox.com.

PHOTOGRAPHERS AND VIDEOGRAPHERS

Due to a limited number of on-field photo spots, the first and third base photo wells are limited to local newspapers, wire services, Twins photographers and whomever is assigned for that particular game. As an alternative, the Twins can provide designated photo positions around the concourse. Photographers assigned to the on-field locations should remain in the photo wells at all times during the game. Photographers in the photo wells should leave or change locations between innings only. Photos are allowed during batting practice, but photographers must remain on the dirt in foul territory, between first and third base. No photographs are to be taken from the baseball pressbox. The Target Field photo workroom is located on the Service Level (-2) down the Media Field Access Tunnel near the Baseball Communications Office.

He joined the Twins' Media Relations department in 2006 and was promoted to Senior Director of Communications in 2015. In December 2020, Morse was given MLB's Robert O. Fishel Award for Public Relations excellence, joining Twins Hall of Famer Tom Mee (1988) as Minnesota's two recipients.

In his current role, Morse leads the Communications department, his key responsibilities include oversight of all baseball and business communications efforts, Target Field affairs, civic partnerships, publications, media and player relations, and club archives and authentics. Morse also continues to provide leadership for the Twins Hall of Fame Committee as well as ballpark artwork and Twins Fantasy Camp.

Prior to joining the Twins, Morse enjoyed stints with the San Diego Padres (2004-05), Texas Rangers (2003), Chicago Cubs (2002) and the National Baseball Hall of Fame (2001). He served as the press liaison for Team Netherlands during the 2017, 2023 and 2026 World Baseball Classics and assisted Major League Baseball during the 2013, '14, '17, '18, '19, '21, '22 and '25 All-Star Games.

He spent four years as the Associate Commissioner for Marketing and Communications at the Western Collegiate Hockey Association (WCHA). Hodson also enjoyed successful stints with PR agency Carmichael Lynch Relate, the University of Minnesota and the Stanford University Athletics Department.

Matt obtained his bachelor's degree in English literature with a minor in communications from Santa Clara (CA) University.

Hestad assists in various media relations areas and is responsible for all baseball-related information within the department, including the club's official media guide, season summary, daily game notes and statistics, while also assisting numerous departments within the organization with Twins/baseball historical research. In addition, he oversees the club's authentics department.

Prior to joining the Twins, he worked for a year in the University of North Dakota's Sports Information Department and graduated from UND in 2005, earning a degree in Communication with a study of emphasis in Public Relations and Sports Marketing.

Zimmerman serves as the club's primary media credential contact and media servicing liaison. She also supports the department's efforts in a variety of areas, including baseball information, archiving, corporate communications and publications. Prior to joining the Twins, Zimmerman interned in a communications capacity with the Kansas City Royals (2019), Cleveland Guardians (2018) and Miami Marlins (2017), and worked in marketing/communications for the Australian Baseball League from 2014-17.

Originally from the Chicago area, Nina obtained her bachelor's degree in American Studies and Modern Languages (Italian/Spanish) from Kenyon College and began pursuing her juris doctor at the University of Hawai'i at Manoa in August 2025.

LEE HEALTH SPORTS COMPLEX

The Twins are enjoying their 36th spring training season in Lee County at the Lee Health Sports Complex in 2026. Spurred by their first year in the state-of-the-art facility, the Twins won the 1991 World Series after enjoying their most successful Spring Training camp in history as they posted a record-high 21 wins. In their 35 years at the complex, the Twins have drawn a total of 3,560,820 fans over 524 dates, (total does not include 17 replacement games in 1995 – 49,240 fans).

Located south of the city of Fort Myers, FL near Interstate 75, the Lee Health Sports Complex is the spring training home to the Twins and their six minor league affiliates, and the year-round home of the Twins Player Development Academy, the Fort Myers Mighty Mussels (Minnesota's Low-A affiliate in the Florida State League) and the organization's rookie-level Florida Complex League Twins. The centerpiece of the facility is an 8,730-seat stadium in which the major league Twins play their exhibition games and conduct some of their daily workouts. The complex also features five full practice fields and two half-fields.

The facility also features a four-field softball complex and other athletic facilities for use by Lee County organizations and visiting amateur baseball and softball teams, plus an 11-acre water-management lake.

In addition to Twins Spring Training and Player Development activities, the Lee Health Sports Complex has served as a first responder site during natural disasters and times of need for Lee County residents. Additionally, the complex holds various events that bring thousands more visitors to Lee County annually, including the FHSAA Baseball State Championships as well as several major youth baseball tournaments throughout the year.

On August 3, 2004, the Twins signed an extension with Lee County for use of the complex through 2020, and on November 6, 2012 the Lee County Board of County Commissioners approved a $42.5 million renovation and a new 30-year lease. Also in 2012, the Twins named their infield drills field "Tom Kelly Field" in honor of their former manager.

Combined with the Twins contribution, the total for the renovations increased to $48.5 million. The renovations prior to the 2015 season increased the seating capacity to 8,730 and included a new party deck, expanded gift shop and an outfield boardwalk around the playing field to create a 360-degree walk-around the stadium, similar to Target Field. The plan also renovated previously existing concession stands, restrooms, suites and press box areas. The project was designed by Populous out of Kansas City, MO, with design assistance by Parker Mudgett Smith, based out of Fort Myers, and was constructed by Manhattan Construction.

A signature feature of the renovated facilities is the Twins Player Development Academy, which includes a 58-room residence hall for players and staff, dining facilities, recreational spaces, meeting rooms, educational classrooms and Champions Hall, a 220-seat tiered theater used by players and staff for meetings, conferences and presentations throughout the year.

The Academy is equipped with state of the art technology and amenities, delivering world-class player instruction for both major league and minor league players.

In addition to the Player Development Academy, the entire minor league building was renovated, including an expanded clubhouse with new lockers for players and staff, a new 1,800 square foot training room, high tech video facilities, expanded office space and a new game field for the minor league teams.

The major league facility, team and player upgrades include new athletic training and strength and conditioning rooms, new lockers for players and staff, dedicated dining room space, state-of-the-art video facilities and complete renovation of all office and meeting rooms. The overall project earned the Twins honors among Ballpark Digest's Best Major Renovations of 2015.

Continuing the renovations at Hammond Stadium prior to the 2016 season, Lee County and the Twins added a shade structure along the leftfield line of the Boardwalk and a permanent serving area on the 4th floor Sky Deck.

Installed prior to 2017, the old scoreboard was replaced with a new full-feature LED video board. The screen measures 18' x 35' and was installed by Daktronics of Brookings, SD. Additionally, the FCL Twins home playing field was named "Bill Smith Field" in honor of the former Twins General Manager and in 2018 a practice field adjacent to the main stadium was named "Stelly Field" in honor of longtime Twins coach Rick Stelmaszek, who passed away the previous year.

In 2025, the Twins, in partnership with Lee County, Lee Health's Golisano Children's Hospital of Southwest Florida and Family Initiative, Inc., unveiled a new, state-of-the-art Twins Sensory Room – the Grapefruit League's first ever in-ballpark sensory space for neurodivergent guests.

The main stadium was renamed Bill Hammond Stadium late in the 1994 spring season in honor of the longtime Deputy County Manager who was instrumental in getting the complex approved and bringing the Twins to Lee County.

Major league home and visiting clubhouses are included in the stadium proper, and complete facilities for the minor league teams are contained in a building adjacent to their playing fields. The major league club's administrative offices are located in the stadium, with the minor league administrative offices in the building adjacent to its fields.

The Twins trained in Orlando, FL, from 1936 through 1990 (with the exception of the war years of 1943, '44 and '45, when they conditioned in College Park, MD) and their minor league clubs moved to Terry Park in Fort Myers in 1990, after headquartering in Melbourne, FL, from 1964-89. The entire organization was united for the first time in Lee County in 1991.

The Sports Complex, an $18.2 million undertaking, was completed in February, 1991. Lescher and Mahoney, an architectural and engineering firm based in Tampa, FL, was the lead architect for the project, with design assistance from Ellerbe Becket of Kansas City, MO. Case Contracting Company of Plant City, FL, was the contractor.
